1 [PROCEEDINGS ON 19 OCTOBER 2018]
 2 [09:03] COMMISSIONER: Yes morning.
 3 MS STEINBERG: Morning Judge and panel.
 4 We call Mr Mark Kingon.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Mr Kingon, may I just say
 6 in advance that we really want to thank you for the support
 7 you've given to this Commission and thank you very deeply 8 because you've been absolutely supportive. Not only in 9 assisting us with facilities and so forth but, you know
 10 your response to our, I wouldn't say request, our demands 11 all the time. I know you've got very, very heavy 12 responsibilities at the moment and all of your, our 13 requests have been instantly dealt with and it is so 14 gratifying to see the head of an institution under inquiry 15 being so open and we really want to thank you very much for 16 that.
 17 MR KINGON: I appreciate that, Judge.
 18 COMMISSIONER: Do you affirm the evidence 19 you give will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but 20 the truth. Say I do.
 21 MR KINGON: I do.
 22 EVIDENCE OF MR KINGON
 23 COMMISSIONER: Thank you.
 24 MS STEINBERG: Morning, Mr Kingon. I'd 25 like to repeat the thanks from the side of the advocates

Page 3696

1 and just to add to what the Judge has said. The liaison 2 team that you've given us has been indispensable to our 3 work. We wouldn't have able to do it, at speed and at all 4 in fact without their help so thank you.
 5 MR KINGON: Thank you, Advocate.
 6 MS STEINBERG: Why don't you kick off, Mr
 7 Kingon.
 8 MR KINGON: Firstly, Judge, to the 9 panellists, the evidence leaders, thank you for the 10 privilege of being here today. Nervous privilege I may 11 say, Judge and obviously in preparation one doesn't know 12 what to anticipate in terms of this. But thank you very 13 much and I will say a bit later in terms of thanks to you 14 with regards to the work that has been done in terms of the 15 thing. You said it's been, we've been instantaneous in 16 responding, I've attempted to do that, Judge. I think not 17 always have I been, it's put me under pressure. Let's put 18 it that way but it's for the good of the country and for 19 the good of the organisation and for us that's the most 20 important, as we kick off here. But thank you, Judge.
 21 If I may kick off. I was obviously appointed to 22 the post of acting Commissioner on the 19th of March, 23 exactly seven months today. In the evening of the 19th of 24 March I was appointed to a 90 day tenure by the Minister of 25 Finance and it's been repeated twice subsequently and my

1 next acting tenure ends on the, if I've got it right, on 2 the 13th of December 2018. Obviously I was parachuted into 3 this position and I think it's important that on the 14th of 4 March that I had been appointed as the acting head of 5 business and individual tax on the resignation of Mr Jonas
 6 Makwakwa. That was a Wednesday. On the evening of the 19th 7 which was a Monday I got the call am I prepared to act, and 8 I might say I didn't say yes immediately, Judge, but I, it 9 was five days that I was in that position and obviously 10 then I was asked to serve in this.
 11 I think you would acknowledge that that propelled 12 me into a very awkward situation having people who were 13 senior to me reporting to me. It does make it difficult.
 14 In addition I had to cooperate with your Commission which 15 was kicking off at that point in time and ensure that the 16 organisation continues with its operations and revenue. We 17 had to balance these two things. Whether we've got it 18 right is a debatable issue and we can get to that. We also 19 face the issue that we've got severe cuts in terms of our 20 budget and that gave other aspects that we need to deal 21 with and we may touch on those a little later.
 22 To top it all SARS was involved in a number of 23 non-core litigation as I would call it. Non-core disputes
 24 that really were distracting to our organisation. The so 25 called alleged rogue unit had really taken a lot of time in

1 terms of the management of the organisation. Just prior to 2 my appointment, the budget in February and really we were 3 being blamed with regards to the VAT increase that we were 4 50 billion short in terms of the printed estimate that was 5 published in the prior budget. We obviously did not reach 6 the, at the end of March, just after I was appointed, we 7 did not reach the revenue target as you are aware. We were 8 fighting with the Auditor-General amongst others which I'll 9 touch on a bit later and there was many disputes about 10 certain crimes or alleged crimes that had been committed 11 whether there was cover-up or not and I'm not going to go 12 and dwell on that now but these, this is the context into 13 which we came.
 14 Judge, we were previously in the media for the 15 right reasons. We would be in the media for operations, 16 operational issues and I'm happy to be in the media when 17 refunds don't flow or something like that. Obviously we 18 don't want service failures. But that's our business.
 19 It's about service. But to be in the media for non-issues, 20 non-core issues that was the huge challenge and I think 21 it's very important to say rarely if ever had SARS had to 22 contend with weak leadership, a blemished integrity, total 23 public distrust of our organisation, serious operational 24 lapses and breaches of the higher purpose. I don't think 25 we've ever experienced in my history of being in this

1 organisation a moment like we are in today and I hope in my 2 tenure here whatever capacity that might be I will remain
 3 to serve, I hope we never have to face this again. It is a 4 first for us.

5 Having our credibility and our effectiveness
 6 under question in the public domain is severely damaging 7 not only to the country but to our organisation, our staff, 8 many of who are represented here. I was obviously daunted 9 by all of this coming in and I had to find the strength to 10 keep SARS going for the sake of this beloved country of 11 ours. That meant that I had no option but to work with 12 SARS to ensure that we had stability in terms of the 13 organisation. I think it would be true to say that the 14 situation continues to be uncertain, tumultuous and I think 15 you've seen many things. The suspension of the 16 Commissioner, Mr Tom Moyane, it has capped a period since 17 2014 where all these different narratives have played out 18 in the media. It's extremely tumultuous. It's the four 19 years that, I think have aged me the most, in terms of who 20 I am.

21 Many, and there's many people here if I may say, 22 both current and past SARS people who have had to contend 23 with job displacements, retrenchments, resignations and 24 dismissals triggered by findings and recommendations of 25 various investigations such as this Sikhakhane report and

1 the KPMG report and I want to pause a while there if I may,
 2 Judge. And just to say for an organisation to allow a
 3 release of the Sikhakhane report into the public domain 4 which ultimately damaged people to the extent that I have 5 seen damage in people, to release taxpayer details on this 6 Sikhakhane report and issue a press release without 7 thinking twice that this is in conflict with the principles 8 of confidentiality it's a shame and I'm deeply perturbed by 9 it. The damage it's caused is huge.

10 Obviously the implementation of the new operating 11 model on top of that compounded things and I don't want to 12 elaborate on that today, necessarily in absolute detail
 13 because you've heard much evidence in the last few months 14 with regards to that. These things combined to have 15 damaged SARS's reputation and wreck personal lives and 16 there's people's personal lives that have been wrecked 17 here. Careers, reputations have been directly impacted on 18 of our staff and it's not Judge that it's only the people 19 who were displaced from jobs who were impacted. There are 20 many people sitting in this room and I know there are, who 21 got posts, who got positions in terms of the operating 22 model, they also felt the hurt and the pain and there's 23 many examples of that, that I could share with the 24 Commission, but this had the result of sowing uncertainty 25 and division and creating a serious climate of fear and

1 distrust in our organisation.

2 I've mentioned the litigation a little earlier 3 that we were embroiled, this is on top of all of this and 4 you know for me to be litigating against the Auditor-5 General on the one side and then my boss, the Minister of 6 Finance. It's unheard of and it really goes contrary to 7 the flow of what we would like to be about and these things
 8 are just not acceptable. I've resolved all of the cases 9 that are out there that were non-core, they have been 10 resolved, there's some aspects just cleaning up in terms of 11 that but that will continue. We have to get into our focus 12 of restoration of our organisation and resume our place as 13 a tax authority that is robust, it is trusted, in some 14 cases feared, I think one would have to say, but for the 15 most place trusted because if we trust it revenue 16 collection will flow and I believe that we have to do this 17 for the sake of our country.

18 I do remain even as I sit here today very 19 concerned about the overall health of our organisation and 20 it's a thing that for many nights has kept me worried, how 21 do we fix this, how do we fix this, this key issue and just 22 some of the concerns that I just wanted to touch on. When 23 I came in we were faced that we had three chief officers'
 24 positions vacant. So we got the chief officer of business 25 and individual tax, we've got the chief officer of customs

1 who had recently resigned, we had an acting chief officer
 2 within the Finance space where the chief officer of Finance
 3 had resigned in August of last year. To have three key 4 positions vacant in that way is serious for the 5 organisation. I have filled obviously the positions of 6 business and individual tax and customs with acting 7 positions now and we're waiting just to see how we proceed 8 in that regard and I have appointed the chief officer of 9 Finance who testified earlier this week, I did that with 10 the concurrence of the Minister who I am accountable to for 11 such matters.

12 It would be true that our executive leadership is 13 broken and unstable and wracked by division and distrust.
 14 We need visionary leadership at this time and I don't think 15 at this time we have such visionary leadership to take the 16 organisation to the next step in our, going forward we have 17 to fix this place and for me it's so critical, we need 18 vision and just in thinking about and in preparation for 19 here there's a statement and forgive me I don't know who 20 said it but an organisation that has no vision dies. We 21 need vision to take this place forward.

22 I need to also acknowledge Judge, that there are 23 cases that we've been in denial that there's a problem and 24 that, the first part of healing is accept that there's a 25 problem and then we can move forward in terms of going

1 forward. Very importantly and it's been a fascinating
 2 journey for me as I've come into the office and I've had 3 the opportunity to go through lots of documents and I've 4 made many of them available to you. But management has 5 been disempowered in terms of the availability of 6 information. A lot of information was kept in an inner 7 clique within the organisation and I'll give an example.
 8 The Bain report and the diagnostics was not openly shared 9 with everybody. So you couldn't make judgment calls, you
 10 get told this is the direction. You get the Gartner report 11 which is so fundamental to the organisation, that is not 12 shared as openly as it should. We then say in the Gartner 13 report no there's a can of worms that's been uncovered in 14 terms of the Gartner report. I'm not sure, I haven't seen 15 that. I have not seen that evidence that shows there's a 16 can of worms, and I think it may even have been stated in 17 this very room. We then go on an escapade and we appoint 18 Grant Thornton which, the chief officer of Finance alluded 19 to. But the report of Grant Thornton comes back to us in a 20 PowerPoint presentation which for me is not a forensic 21 audit with due respect and if I look at that it's all ifs
 22 and buts and disclaimers. But that report is also not 23 shared with management to empower them and you've got to 24 wonder if I do a report why am I getting a report. Is it 25 for, to keep in the closet and I just suspect, if I may, I

1 think there was a lot of maliciousness in it because it was 2 targeted at certain individuals let's find evidence that 3 can sink people and, there's a lesson I've learnt and I'm 4 jumping away from my script that I have. There's a lesson 5 in this, dwell more in the future than in the past because 6 the past, yes it's happened but let's look to the future.
 7 We know the things that are broken, let's fix them. I
 8 think just an example of the withholding of information 9 that the evidence leaders led evidence a few weeks ago when 10 Minister Gigaba was here was the aspect of the so called 11 Russian trip that took place in November or December I 12 can't remember the exact date now for a second. My mind 13 went blank there but that, no one in our leadership team 14 knew about that trip. I sent a letter to the Commission on 15 the 21st of August, I sent a reminder on the 28th of August.
 16 I'm still none the wiser. As I sit here I do not know. So 17 that's just some of the information. Normally if I was to 18 go for instance, I hate travelling, but I went to Ghana, I 19 don't hide it from my people, my people know where I am.
 20 I've got to appoint an acting person, they need to know 21 where I am, what I'm going there for. I need to be 22 accountable. The point of Commissioner and I'll get to 23 that at the end, Judge, has to be accountable and we have 24 to be accountable for doing the right thing.
 25 Very importantly these aspects, these disturbing

1 aspects at the top permeated to all levels in the 2 organisation and obviously created a fertile breeding 3 ground for destructive gossip, fear and distrust which even 4 continues today. I need to say that this was compounded by 5 certain arbitrary and unsympathetic HR processes. Cases of 6 frivolous and mischievous internal investigations and it's 7 an area I'll come back to a little later. Employee morale
 8 has been impacted very negatively. Even yesterday
 9 afternoon I sat with the IT team, the impact on the staff 10 morale is severe and we need to rebuild that and that's 11 what I'm trying to do and it's one step at a time. We need 12 to fix these things.
 13 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, can I pause for 14 a moment. The role of HR and employer relations I just 15 have a couple of specific questions for you there.
 16 MR KINGON: Sure.
 17 MS STEINBERG: You brought to our 18 attention, not long ago an application from Mr Lebelo, 19 whose the group executive of employer relations to Ms 20 Refiloe Mokoena who is now the suspended CO legal, an 21 application made on the 9th of July this year for external 22 legal services and that resulted in work being done by Mr 23 Maphakela of Mashiane Moodley Monama to the tune of in 24 excess of R759 000 in one month and that work was to 25 prepare Mr Lebelo just to give evidence before this

1 Commission. I want to know if you authorised that?
 2 MR KINGON: I did not authorise that. I
 3 think, maybe if I could, Judge, just highlight how the 4 process works. So I would not normally get involved in the 5 approval of legal costs. That is the domain of the chief 6 legal officer insofar as it relates to matters outside the 7 labour relations space. In other words there was a 8 delegation in place up to a point and I, forgive me with 9 regards to the dates, that would have allowed employee
 10 relations, say if they're entering a CCMA matter or labour
 11 court matter they would be able to employ lawyers in terms 12 of that. But there's two things I want to say, if I may 13 Judge. That, it followed the proper governance processes 14 to get approval. The chief legal officer did have the 15 authority to approve that. Do I approve it personally, no.
 16 We had a specific process in place with regards to the 17 approval of legal support to people who have appeared 18 before you. They went through our corporate legal team.
 19 Ms Mcungu Mathebula and I specifically put that in place.
 20 If anybody need it they need to get approval and go through 21 that, that was not done in this case. And I was not aware 22 of these costs being incurred.
 23 MS STEINBERG: Do you think it's 24 appropriate?
 25 [09:23] MR KINGON: No.

1 MS STEINBERG: Is it worthy of a
 2 disciplinary?

3 MR KINGON: I have not engaged Mr Lebelo
 4 on this specific matter and I think I would owe it to him
 5 to do that first. If I look at the extent of the costs 6 involved and where I am in my current climate of my 7 organisation, our organisation, maybe I should be saying, I
 8 can't afford costs like this. And to be charged 750 000
 9 including VAT, actually a bit more than that, for one 10 month's work and not full time work, there's something 11 wrong.

12 MS STEINBERG: Well if –

13 COMMISSIONER: Do you know the nature of 14 the work that was done?

15 MR KINGON: I have not seen the brief,
 16 I've only read the invoice and I have to assume from that 17 that the work related to preparation of the evidence that 18 he led here with regards to Mr Pillay and I think I saw Mr
 19 Richer's matter there, Mr Lackay's matter, I think Johan 20 van Loggerenberg's matter, there might have been one or two 21 others. Forgive me, I've got the matters here, but ja.

22 MS STEINBERG: It seems to be, the 23 instruction seems to be Mr Lebelo asking Mr Maphakela to 24 gather documents around the Rogue Unit saga and to prepare 25 files which he did. I must say Mr Kingon, that we are

1 particularly disturbed because Mr Lebelo repeatedly said in 2 his evidence that the reason he wanted to give evidence 3 was to clear his own name. So it seems to us that an 4 amount of R759 000 of taxpayer money was spent in an 5 attempt to help him clear his own name. This Commission – 6 as the Judge has said repeatedly we accept that there was 7 legal advice before him which justified the disciplinary 8 action that he took. And it really does baffle us why this 9 amount of money had to be spent.

10 MR KINGON: I think it's unnecessary and 11 it warrants a further investigation to lead to a conclusion 12 whatever that conclusion might be in terms of our due 13 process. It's unacceptable, Judge.

14 MS STEINBERG: I have a second question.

15 MR KAHLA: Maybe before you move on the 16 first one, I just need clarity.

17 MS STEINBERG: Go ahead, Mr Kahla.

18 MR KAHLA: I understood you, Mr Kingon, 19 to suggest that the Chief Officer Legal had authority to 20 approve the application. Did I understand you right?

21 MR KINGON: Correct.

22 MR KAHLA: So there's no question around 23 authority having been given by the right person.

24 MR KINGON: No question.

25 MR KAHLA: The question around this, the

1 point as I understand it, is around the wisdom exercise, if 2 any, by the one granting the request, the authority always 3 lay with Ms Mokoena whether or not she exercised that 4 authority rightly that's a different matter.

5 MR KINGON: Correct. The key thing, Sir,
 6 is that in any briefing to legal teams you need a brief, I 7 haven't seen that brief. So I'm not sure what was put 8 before them to say this is the advice that we're needing or 9 not needing. I haven't seen that, I have only seen – so 10 before any approval is granted you need to understand the 11 scope of the approval that you're going to grant surely 12 because it can't be a blank cheque to say I can incur 13 millions of rand just to go in a certain direction. And 14 again it's backward looking, instead of looking to the 15 future.

16 MR KAHLA: Could you also then clarify to 17 – you've indicated that you approved a process for 18 individuals within SARS seeking legal advice for coming 19 before the Commission to be cleared through corporate legal 20 services.

21 MR KINGON: Correct.

22 MR KAHLA: What was envisaged by that?

23 MR KINGON: Well what happened is there
 24 were certain people who were approached by the Commission 25 to lead evidence and they just sought some legal advice in

1 terms of how to present it, etcetera. It was just if they 2 needed it. And there were two or three people that 3 specifically asked and we felt it right to do so.

4 MR KAHLA: Why would the matter in 5 relation to Mr Lebelo not fall under that category of 6 approval?

7 MR KINGON: That I can't answer before I 8 do further investigation.

9 MR KAHLA: That's where I've sort of 10 noted you to suggest you think that one was improper and 11 I'm just trying to see how would you distinguish that from 12 the sanction that's given in relation to the others.

13 MR KINGON: I don't know quite how to 14 answer you because I don't know the facts as to how it 15 happened that they gave the approval for the 750 000 to be 16 incurred. And I need to go into that in a bit lot more 17 detail which I haven't been able to do as yet. But the 18 process of getting that approval was known, in fact Mr 19 Lebelo, prior to appearing at the one stage, actually 20 approached and he sought advice. I said well have you got 21 legal help. And he said no which I assumed was the correct 22 position and he actually did seek by writing to the head of 23 corporate legal to get such approval. He didn't utilise it 24 as such at that point in time.

25 COMMISSIONER: Well there are two very

1 separate things and that is you hire an attorney or counsel 2 to come and sit here and to assist you if you get into any 3 difficulty as you're giving evidence. Maybe there's a 4 question asked that would incriminate you and your counsel 5 would say he shouldn't answer that question or whatever.
 6 That's that, it doesn't cost R750 000 for someone to sit 7 and do that. Do you have the letter that was written, I 8 remember a letter that was written to me. It was a very 9 different case here. This was a matter and I'll tell you 10 now because I received the letter, they CCd, as they were 11 talking to each other, they kept CC-ing me and I would like 12 to know why they felt it was necessary to do so. But be 13 that as it may, in which exercise was go and gather all the 14 evidence we had against Mr Pillay, Mr Richer, Loggerenberg, 15 etcetera at that time four years ago when we were about to 16 discipline them. Gather all the evidence we have to show 17 what we had, to show what evidence we had. There's a long 18 letter from Mr Maphakela there analysing that and showing 19 why he said they were all guilty. Now that's a very 20 different matter from having someone to sit here to protect 21 you as a witness.
 22 MR KINGON: We agree.
 23 COMMISSIONER: That might cost, well I
 24 don't know if it costs R750 000, particularly as your brief 25 is only to gather the documents you had. It would seem to

1 me it would take a day to do that, but be that as it may,
 2 Mr Maphakela and Mr Lebelo are coming next week, they've 3 been summoned to come and explain that. But just to assist 4 you they are two very different briefs you're talking about 5 here.
 6 PROF KATZ: Could I just add to that,
 7 Judge? Counsel is that one for the past or for his 8 appearance on Monday, that account?
 9 COMMISSIONER: I'll tell you if I may say
 10 so, if I may intervene. It is to prepare him, to prepare 11 the evidence he should give to us. I.e. prepare, gather 12 together the evidence he should give to us on the whole 13 Rogue Unit and why it was justified to pursue these people.
 14 That was the purpose according to the letter. Have you got 15 that letter?
 16 MS STEINBERG: I was going to turn to 17 that next if you don't mind.
 18 COMMISSIONER: Anyway, Mr Kingon, if I 19 may say so, you can investigate as much as you like, but 20 spending three quarters of a million rand of taxpayers' 21 money for that purpose, to resurrect the Rogue Unit and to 22 resurrect evidence against these people of four years ago 23 is to my mind outrageous.
 24 MR KINGON: I would concur, Judge.
 25 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, I sent you this

1 letter a couple of days ago and the reason I sent it to you
 2 was I wanted to ask you whether this was a letter that 3 represented the views of SARS. And I'd like to point to a 4 couple of paragraphs which are disturbing to the 5 Commission. It's an 11 page letter, it was written on the 6 22nd of August 2018, so if I may say the cost – whatever 7 this letter cost Mr Maphakela to write is not included in 8 the R759 000 because it's from another month. So 759 000 9 is the minimum. I've seen another invoice for 65 000 from 10 another month. So frankly we're approaching on a R1
 11 million for Mr Lebelo's appearance here in order to re-
 12 awake the Rogue Unit issue. Now this letter, as the Judge 13 said, is actually a letter from Mr Maphakela to Mr Lebelo, 14 but it CCd the Judge. And it followed a meeting or two 15 that the Judge and Mr Lebelo had had discussing the so 16 called Rogue Unit evidence.
 17 COMMISSIONER: Well if you don't mind my 18 saying, not discussing the Rogue Unit, discussing what Mr 19 Lebelo wanted to come and say to this Commission and he 20 wanted to come and say to the Commission. He said I want 21 to go and justify why we pursued these people and that's 22 where it –
 23 MS STEINBERG: Yes.
 24 COMMISSIONER: - if I may say so it was 25 those –

1 MS STEINBERG: They were your meetings
 2 yes.
 3 COMMISSIONER: - these were my 4 conversations.
 5 MS STEINBERG: Now most of the – 6 COMMISSIONER: By the way I said you're 7 welcome to come and appear before the Commission. It's 8 been said at that time particularly that this Commission 9 was blocking things and so forth. I said, Mr Lebelo, if 10 you want to come and talk to the Commission you do so. It 11 doesn't mean that he's going to have a platform here and 12 that's not what this Commission is about. And we will see 13 what it is he wishes to tell the Commission. If it is of 14 value to the Commission we will hear it and if it is of no
 15 value to the Commission we will not hear it.
 16 MS STEINBERG: Now the first nine pages
 17 of the letter set out why, in Mr Maphakela's opinion how Mr 18 Pillay, Mr Richer etcetera, etcetera were all guilty at the 19 time. The last page or two, paragraph 24, is headed The 20 Importance of a Public Rebuttal by the SARS, that's by the 21 SARS. And this is why I put the questions that are coming 22 to you, Mr Acting Commissioner. And Mr Maphakela says "Mr 23 Pillay has been granted an opportunity by the Commission to 24 tell South Africans and the entire global community that he 25 had been purged out of the SARS. And that the unit was

1 lawfully established and that this unit did not engage in 2 any unlawful activities. In this regard it's critical that 3 the SARS Human Resource is given an opportunity to provide 4 the SARS's version of events around 2014, particularly what 5 as to what led to the initiation of disciplinary 6 proceedings against Mr Pillay including his suspension.
 7 There is no reason why the SARS HR should not be given a 8 platform. It is important that the Commission does not 9 only allege to be fair, but that it is seen to be fair 10 especially after it's given Mr Pillay an opportunity to 11 state his version of events."

12 It goes on to say "same with Mr Ravele." The 13 next paragraph is "The new, but yet puzzling position
 14 adopted by the Commission not to deal with the allegations 15 surrounding the unit are disappointing given that other 16 people such as Mr Pillay were granted an opportunity to 17 state their version of events in respect of this unit. And 18 there is no indication that their evidence is to be ignored 19 given the Commission's change in direction." And he 20 concludes by saying, almost concludes. "In my view if the 21 SARS HR is not given the opportunity to be heard in an open 22 and public forum like the one afforded to Mr Pillay, it
 23 would confirm my reasonable suspicion that the Commission 24 has already made up its mind in finding that Mr Pillay was 25 purged out of the SARS, particularly that the Commission

1 has now decided to avoid the allegations around the unit.
 2 My reasonable suspicion is based on the ongoing
 3 lobbying to bring Mr Pillay back into the SARS. And this 4 would be possible if the Commission was to make a finding 5 that Mr Pillay was purged from the SARS and that there was 6 no prima facie case against him prior to his resignation 7 from the SARS. It appears that this is likely to be the 8 conclusion given by the Commission's glaring outlook to 9 ignore existing prima facie evidence against Mr Pillay as 10 submitted to the Commission by Mr Lebelo. In my humble 11 observation the Commission is reluctant to accept any 12 evidentially material that goes against its preconceived 13 finding which is motivated by the dominant but incorrect 14 narrative that Mr Pillay was purged." And he says he 15 remains available to the Commission. We have summoned him 16 and we appreciate that he's available. Now you'll 17 appreciate, Mr Kingon, that Mr Maphakela is accusing this 18 Commission of bias and I ask you is that SARS's position
 19 about this Commission?
 20 MR KINGON: Not at all and if anything I
 21 – firstly this does not represent and I've got highlighted 22 those exact paragraphs you've read. This is contrary to 23 reflecting anything of SARS. This is definitely not my 24 view, it is not SARS's view. There's no way that I believe 25 that this Commission is biased in any way. I wouldn't have

1 supported it otherwise. We've got to put all the evidence
 2 before you, you will make up your mind, I trust this 3 Commission whole heartedly and I believe that you will make 4 your minds up after you've heard all the evidence. This 5 letter saddens me because it purports to represent me
 6 ultimately because I'm the accounting officer. And to do
 7 that is unacceptable and I distance myself from this 8 letter.
 9 MS STEINBERG: And then a follow up
 10 question. This so called Rogue Unit probably about six 11 people, it was disbanded years ago, is it a priority of 12 yours to continue to investigate what happened?
 13 MR KINGON: Not at all. The Rogue Unit
 14 is history, Judge. The Rogue Unit, there's a whole 15 narrative, there's information that has been provided, yes
 16 there may have been elements in it that operated in a way 17 that I wouldn't feel comfortable with today, but we need to 18 move on. We can't be dwelling in the past, this is now 19 four years on, we can't keep on dredging this up and 20 dredging this up. How are we ever going to get to a place 21 that we can move forward? So it is not my intention to go 22 dig into the Rogue Unit. And you know in the way it was 23 dug in and I want to pause there a while. The way we dug 24 into that Rogue Unit there's a person sitting in the 25 audience here who will remain nameless, the one thing he

1 asked of me, one thing, just give my parents a letter, I
 2 get emotional, forgive me, that I wasn't involved in a 3 brothel. This is not how we treat people, we can't.
 4 COMMISSIONER: Don't worry, Mr Kingon,
 5 I've been driven to tears at times about what I hear here.
 6 MR KAHLA: A follow up.
 7 COMMISSIONER: Sure.
 8 MR KAHLA: Was there ever an impression
 9 within SARS, I'm talking now since the Commission had 10 started its work, that there were matters that were 11 considered relevant to the terms of reference of the 12 Commission that the Commission was not willing to hear?
 13 MR KINGON: I've had no such view no.
 14 MR KAHLA: Was it ever raised with you 15 that there may be an impression at least from HR that –
 16 MR KINGON: No.
 17 MR KAHLA: - the Commission may not be 18 open to hearing any other side of the story in relation to 19 the termination of those individuals?
 20 MR KINGON: No. Nothing prevented any 21 evidence from being provided to the Commission and you've 22 shown you to be open in every way to anything that we've 23 brought. So, no.
 24 COMMISSIONER: Yes well I can just say on 25 that that counsel will correct me, I don't know of one

1 person who has come and said I want to give evidence who 2 has not been permitted that including Mr Lebelo. Has 3 anyone approached us and said I want to give evidence and 4 we've said no you can't? There was the one man who wanted 5 to come and give defamatory evidence and we said well what 6 is the basis and he said he didn't have a basis.
 7 MS STEINBERG: Well he didn't want to 8 give the evidence, he wanted me to give the evidence.
 9 COMMISSIONER: Oh yes ja.
 10 MS STEINBERG: Please go on.
 11 COMMISSIONER: Anyway I just wanted to 12 just clear that up. You know are asked in one our terms of 13 reference were people, I think the word was coerced out of 14 the organisation. We'll look at that and decide that and 15 decide that. And I think that it does start at the 16 beginning of – end of 2014 when people started to be 17 resigning, etcetera and one wants to know why they 18 resigned. So to that extent. Do you know anything about – 19 you read in that letter a campaign of some kind, there's 20 lobbying of some kind for Mr Pillay to come back here.
 21 Have you ever heard anything of this?
 22 MR KINGON: There's always been rumours,
 23 Judge, of many things. So you've got to just sift out 24 what's true and what's not true, but that's not the focus 25 at the moment.

1 COMMISSIONER: No I understand that, I'm 2 just getting a bit, not concerned, I'm just getting 3 fascinated by this obsession with Mr Pillay. Do you know
 4 why there's such an obsession with Mr Pillay?
 5 MR KINGON: I have got no idea. You know 6 I worked for Mr Pillay and I've got nothing but respect for 7 the man and I've got no idea what the obsession is about.
 8 But, Judge, these obsessions must move off the – 9 COMMISSIONER: Well if you say so, Mr
 10 Kingon, and maybe you're right, but I've also got to decide 11 whether we should move on or whether we should have Rogue 12 Unit hearings.
 13 MR KINGON: Ja sure.
 14 [09:43] COMMISSIONER: But I am just fascinated, 15 I have never met Mr Pillay, I don't know him, I don't know 16 any of these people. But I am just hearing of three 17 quarters of a million rand. You know, I live a very modest 18 life if I may say so. To me three quarters of a million 19 rand is a lot of money and what is that to pursue Mr 20 Pillay, pursue Mr Richer, pursue Mr van Loggerenberg or 21 whatever? Can you, I'm quite serious. Can you tell me, 22 can you give me some insight into what on earth is going 23 on.
 24 MR KINGON: I don't know Judge, but you
 25 know what scares me Judge? Is that that money and my chief

1 officer of Finance is here, could have been used to employ
 2 two people on my front lines.
 3 COMMISSIONER: Ja, you know if you just 4 look back again, I'm just trying to calculate. How much 5 money was spent at the beginning? 24 million to trawl 6 through papers to see if you can find something on them, on 7 Mr Pillay or even Mr Kasrils' name gets put up there 8 without even knowing and we know very well, I've seen the 9 records. Mr Kasrils' affairs were being dealt with in the 10 ordinary cause by his tax advisor. Three quarters of a 11 million, I don't know how much in legal fees went into 12 that. Enquiry after enquiry. How much did that cost? It 13 must be up to 40 million rand that is being spent there, to 14 investigate? I mean it may be true, it may well be that 15 the, amongst these six men that they were doing things that 16 are illegal. Perhaps, how long? Does it cost 40 million 17 rand to find that?
 18 MR KINGON: Well, some of it's been 19 refunded by one of the firms.
 20 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 21 MR KINGON: So it is less now, but it
 22 goes in also to the IT contracts and forgive me, I haven't 23 got the figures at my fingertips with regards to what we 24 spent on Grant Thornton.
 25 MS STEINBERG: 12 million.

1 MR KINGON: 12 million. It's another 12
 2 million, so it all adds up.
 3 COMMISSIONER: People are spending money
 4 here like water. Sorry Mr Kingon, and I'm about to put in 5 my tax return by the way.
 6 PROF KATZ: Mr Kingon, are any of these 7 matters discussed at EXCO?
 8 MR KINGON: We have had discussions with 9 regards to some of the matters. Ja, some of them.
 10 COMMISSIONER: Anyway, we can move of 11 that. We can see if, if anyone, I've said it how many 12 times I've said here, if anybody wants to give evidence in 13 contradiction to any evidence you've heard, please come 14 forward. It is now four, six weeks away from having to 15 finalise this matter and I've said it so many times. 14th
 16 of August was the date for, you've got to have a set cut-17 off date some time. 14th of August was the date. We've had 18 nothing to contradict any of the evidence we have heard 19 here. I received two affidavits yesterday in relation to 20 one point about what Mr Scheepers said. I will see them, 21 I've arranged to see them this afternoon to see if they 22 want to give evidence. If anyone has got any evidence that 23 they want to produce on anything that is relevant to this 24 Commission, this is your last chance.
 25 MS STEINBERG: Please go on Mr Kingon.

1 MR KINGON: I'll pick up where I was.
 2 COMMISSIONER: Sorry Mr Kingon, I just 3 thought that you might, you're an insider here. I come 4 from the outside and I just hear these things.
 5 MR KINGON: No, sure.
 6 COMMISSIONER: Thank you very much. Will 7 you carry on it's much more -
 8 MR KINGON: Thank you.
 9 COMMISSIONER: Much more inspiring to 10 hearing what you say.
 11 MS MASILO: I just have one question
 12 counsel on, with regard to the legal costs. Was Ms Mokoena 13 aware of the instruction that we issued in respect of - 14 MR KINGON: I'm not too sure of the 15 dates, Advocate.
 16 MS MASILO: Okay.
 17 MR KINGON: So I'm not too sure, I would 18 have to check. I wouldn't, it would be remiss of me to say 19 something. I don't know as I sit here. It might have been 20 post, I'm not sure. Okay, just picking up. I was dealing 21 with regards to the permeation into the broader 22 organisation of this peer doubt, etcetera, and I think you 23 are aware of our employee connection survey which we have 24 conducted for 2017, which for the first time that in my, in 25 the history of doing it that we found a drop. Now that is

1 indicative of something. You -
 2 MS STEINBERG: A drop of?
 3 MR KINGON: The drop of what we call
 4 employee engagement, and it measures multiple different,
 5 it's a separate and I think the chief officer of Finance
 6 alluded to it. It's a drop off from previous years. So 7 there's different criteria that are measured, staff fill in 8 various surveys that they, we do annually. So that was 9 indicative of something, but the one thing I just wanted to 10 highlight and it comes down to peer and distrust. If you 11 go into our environments, yes in this day and age we've got 12 to have good security. It's a fact, but you go into our 13 environment at Lahai. You'll find cameras wherever you 14 look and Judge, someday I'll take you there and point them
 15 out. I've got two cameras I can see from my desk outside 16 my office, and that peer and distrust that we, that was 17 instilled in terms of all these cameras that were all over 18 the place, in addition at the entrance to A block, in at 19 Lahai which is our main campus, the building that we own, 20 we had an additional scanner put in and an additional 21 baggage scanner put in which was the only block that had 22 it. I removed those, because it gives a perception that 23 leadership is disengaged from the staff, and I'll never 24 forget Judge, on the day that I removed it, there was a 25 staff member. I don't know who it was, I was told about

1 it. Who basically did a dance in front of that thing being 2 removed, and it's all, it's all perspectives that we try 3 and create that we are different. We are part of it. I'm 4 part of this team and we are playing on the same field. We 5 need to be part of that team. In addition -
 6 PROF KATZ: Sorry Mr Kingon, I don't want 7 to, whose instructions were those cameras installed by?
 8 MR KINGON: Well, obviously security
 9 probably, but you know it's a question of peer and 10 distrust. Another example, now just two examples - 11 COMMISSIONER: I suppose security act on 12 instructions as well.
 13 MR KINGON: Instructions, and I haven't 14 gone into all the details of it. I'm trying to get on the 15 business of revenue collecting and these are side issues.
 16 On my actual office door, I've got a fingerprint scanner to 17 open the door. Is that normal? I -
 18 COMMISSIONER: We've heard the evidence 19 from a man, he can't even have a smoke here with someone 20 listening to him.
 21 MR KINGON: Well -
 22 MS STEINBERG: He said Mr Kingon, it's 23 worth some light relief, that the staff used to put sticky 24 tape over the cameras when they had a smoke.
 25 MR KINGON: And I probably know the

1 person that probably said it to you, but look security is 2 needed in this day and age. But the fact that we have more 3 security entering our A block, which is where our executive 4 sits, compared to our E&F block where our IT infrastructure 5 sits, worries me. Just think about it. What is our 6 business? Our business here is serving the client and I'll 7 get to that just now, but our key underlying, that 8 undergirds everything we do is our ICT infrastructure. But 9 I've got less security there than to come see me.
 10 Something wrong, and it's a matter of perspective.
 11 COMMISSIONER: I'm sure there are bigger 12 things as well that you want to tell us about.
 13 MR KINGON: Yes, no sure.
 14 COMMISSIONER: Perhaps let's get to those
 16 MR KINGON: Obviously one of the other
 17 areas was the IT environment that we had created over a 18 number of years, and I had the pleasure of being part of 19 and working with Mr Hore, for him. Sometimes not always 20 agreeing with him, but that's a separate matter. We're 21 allowed to disagree, but the IT infrastructure has 22 deteriorated through neglect over four and a half years.
 23 Much evidence has been led here, but I do think I need to 24 pause and Judge, you did emphasise to the public yesterday
 25 and I did issue a press statement as well. Our e-filing

1 system is not about to collapse tomorrow, but if we don't 2 do something, we're going to get there and I don't want to 3 get into all the technicalities, but the IT infrastructure
 4 is important that it be maintained, refreshed, maybe 20%
 5 per year, maybe 25. We're about 40% behind, depending who 6 you take the actual figures from, and we are going to do 7 that. In fact the key steps we've already approved as an 8 executive with regards to and I'm not going to get into the 9 technicalities. HTML5 and lots of other things in terms of 10 the IT space, and I'm so looking forward to moving forward
 11 in this environment. Next year Judge, we're going to auto 12 assess 1.6 million taxpayers that they don't even have to 13 come to our branch. Now that's a fundamental shift in the 14 way we're doing our business, and those are the things that 15 we need to be doing and it again comes and our IT people 16 need to be passionate again about doing the right things in 17 terms of this. The ill-considered decision to stop at the 18 end of 2014, the modernisation journey, was a sad moment 19 and in fact has put us back four and a half years, and it 20 might be more because we've got to catch up now. It might 21 have put us back further, and that is deeply worrisome and 22 something we need to deal with. An area that has been of 23 concern to me Judge, has been the issue of confidentiality 24 of information. Leaks within our organisation were very 25 rare. It wasn't something that we grew up, knowing that

1 taxpayer information would be leaking or a SARS
 2 confidential information, you know the Tax Administration
 3 has got the two, a Tax administration has got the two types 4 of information. The leaks is a total departure from the 5 culture and values that we hold dear to, over many years.
 6 Scarily I'm not surprised anymore to find details of my 7 discussions with top management in the media the next day, 8 and it is so sad that we've got to that point, and I've 9 been asking that question of myself why? What is causing 10 people to want to leak? Now some of it could be malicious.
 11 In other words I want to undermine the leadership. Some of 12 it might be just simple distrust in leadership, over the 13 period that we've had the hurt and pain. Those questions 14 I'm asking myself, but very importantly we have to restore 15 integrity and trust amongst ourselves. Judge, if you would 16 allow me to read the next piece because it, I don't want to 17 deviate from what I've written in terms of this. All of 18 these things that I've highlighted may be overwhelming.
 19 However the Commission of inquiry is a watershed moment in 20 SARS's history. It has the possibility of opening a new 21 chapter for SARS. The upheavals of the past four years and 22 the ramifications thereof, will take time to heal and be 23 fixed. As a first step leadership must stand up and take 24 accountability both individually, which I'm doing here, and 25 collectively for the damage done, and I'd like to read this

1 which is an unreserved apology.
 2 "I would therefore like to unreservedly say sorry 3 on behalf of the SARS leadership to our taxpayers, our many 4 stakeholders including the President of the country, the 5 Minister of Finance as well as the deputy Minister of 6 Finance, government as a whole, our former and current 7 staff members and their families and the citizens of our 8 country."
 9 COMMISSIONER: Just take a breath.
 10 MS STEINBEG: Take your time Mr Kingon.
 11 MR KINGON: "For falling short of the 12 high standards of performance we have always set for 13 ourselves, for not living up to the SARS values and higher 14 purpose. The poor communication, the unfair treatment and 15 the fear and pain in which staff members may have been 16 subjected." Judge, I give that apology unreservedly.
 17 MS STEINBERG: Thank you Mr Kingon. Take 18 your time, Mr Kingon.
 19 MR KINGON: "One is passionate for the 20 organisation", forgive me.
 21 MS STEINBERG: We so appreciate it. As a
 22 citizen I appreciate it.
 23 MR KINGON: "Restoring ethical 24 leadership. The success of SARS was built on quality and 25 stability of leadership." If you look back, and huge

1 stability. For instance we had the same Minister of 2 Finance over 11 years of the 21 years of existence. Now
 3 it's an interesting thing Judge. Just sitting here last 4 night in preparation. 21, we've come to being an adult.
 5 21 years in October and it's probably significant that 6 today is seven months since I was appointed, 21 years this 7 month since SARS came into existence, and the issue that we 8 need to look at, is both the quality and stability of 9 leadership. Many past SARS leaders have demonstrated 10 unwavering, ethical leadership and commitment to the higher 11 purpose of effectively and efficiently administering and 12 collecting taxes in order to provide the funds needed for 13 government, and we speak of this higher purpose and people
 14 frown on us, but I truly believe and I know my colleagues 15 truly believe that in collecting money and dealing with 16 service, it's not about the money in the bank. It is about 17 the orphan who can have a foster care on the table. It's 18 about the person who has been impacted by the scourge of 19 HIV and aids who can have anti-retrovirals provided 20 monthly. It's about the school children who can be 21 provided an education. It's not about the money. It's 22 about that. It's about the ability to take the country
 23 forward.
 24 This quality and stability of leadership enables 25 SARS to plan for long term changes and very importantly, I

1 think we've seen in the IT space and we have discussed,
 2 even by the chief officer of Finance, you have to have long 3 term planning in the organisation to enable us to plan and 4 develop properly. It allows us to implement system
 5 changes. It allows us to encourage and imbed a credible 6 culture. Above all, it allows SARS to make mistakes and 7 yes, we do make mistakes. I'll be the first to acknowledge 8 I have made mistakes, but at least we can grow out of those 9 mistakes. Much emphasis in our organisation has been 10 placed on formal qualifications as being the main or the 11 only aspect of successful leadership. For me, and maybe 12 I'm defending myself, I do believe that technical mastery 13 derived by experience in the organisation is paramount to 14 ensure that we can properly manage taxes, and it's an 15 important aspect for me. But the most important and it 16 comes down to everything we've been hearing before the 17 Commission, is the issue of integrity. That is the most 18 important aspect that we need in leadership. We need 19 leadership of absolute integrity, uprightness, honesty.
 20 We're going to make mistakes, but if your purpose is to get 21 there, that's what we want and the job of SARS's leadership 22 is primarily about creating a culture, setting the tone 23 from the top. In other words live it and people will 24 follow it. Imbedding and living the values, and very 25 importantly just as I've done a moment ago, leadership

1 needs to acknowledge when they make mistakes, and we all 2 make mistakes Judge. It's a fact but be man enough to 3 stand up and take accountability for the mistakes. Be 4 humble enough to learn from those mistakes and move on.
 5 People make mistakes, and it's a question of how we deal 6 with it. SARS leadership needs to take accountability both 7 individually and collectively. Obviously we need to imbed 8 governance and maintain open and honest communication in 9 order to build confidence. Communication with our staff, 10 communication with the public. If we don't do it, it can 11 become a destructive, it is not proper governance. If 12 there is not proper communication, it becomes destructive 13 and it can damage an organisation as we have seen.
 14 Moreover, SARS needs strong and capable leaders at the top 15 who are able to provide guidance, experience and wisdom, 16 needed to mould and grow the new generation of SARS' 17 managers and prepare them effectively to take over the 18 mantle of leadership, and if I may pause there a while just 19 to touch on this. I start thinking I can go on early 20 retirement next year and it scares the heck out of me.
 21 What are we laying down for the next generation? Who are 22 the people we're growing to put in place, to take this 23 organisation forward and we're going to be measured as a 24 leadership as to who we put in place, how we empower them.
 25 How we train them, how we imbed the culture, the values,

1 etcetera into the next generation to be able to take this 2 organisation forward, and just on a scarier side, I just 3 asked for the figures with regards to the IT environment, 4 and it why this is so important, in the three year
 5 retirement forecast, in the current years, in the next two 6 years over 90 people can retire. Now that's a significant 7 number that can go. Are we preparing for the future?
 8 That's why I don't want to dwell in the past. I want to 9 dwell in the future and move on, and ensure that we mould
 10 and grow this new generation. In this difficult time, as a 11 first step though it is necessary for the SARS leadership 12 to commit in investing and nurturing people. We have to 13 ensure our training of people is in place. Judge, I have 14 been fascinated, I haven't been exposed in certain areas in 15 the last while, my life here engaging with the Indians, the 16 Chinese, the Brazilians and Russians recently in the BRICS 17 process, where people go for six months training and then 18 are only put on the front line. We take one week, two 19 weeks. Basic induction and then the poor customs officer 20 needs to sit at the border post and know that this is a 21 plastic of a such and such a type that deserves tariff code
 22 X and Y and Z that carries such and such a duty.
 23 [10:03] We're not doing our staff a favour. We need to 24 nurture our people. We have to offer - and this is going 25 to be a theme that I'm going to come back - we've got to

1 offer our taxpayers the best service possible and it's 2 important because on service everything is built. It's not 3 on the whip that everything is built. It is on service 4 that everything is build. The whip is only for the 5 minority. The service is for the majority and it's on that 6 that we need to build. We need to ensure that the 7 treatment of all or taxpayers and I've engaged with the 8 Commission in this, needs to be impartial and the 9 application of law needs to be fair in every respect. So,
 10 when I do an audit on the evidence leader I need to apply 11 the same rules when I apply to somebody else. I need to be 12 fair. Case selection must be fair. The audits must be 13 fair, must be just ad properly set out in law. Obviously 14 and we've got a target for this year of R1.345 trillion, we 15 have to do everything in our power to meet that target. It 16 comes down to giving government the ability to be able to 17 do what they need to do. We need to commit to doing that.
 18 We obviously need to regain the cutting edge as a 19 modernising organisation. Modernisation is not a once off 20 event. Modernisation is an ongoing journey. As long as I
 21 live we're going to have to modernise. We're never going 22 to reach the end of modernisation. Probably over 23 emphasising it but we need to be committed to continually 24 learning and improving and constantly raising the bar.
 25 It's not the e-filing in 2008 that we brought in, is not

1 acceptable in 2018. We've got to say and we'll see it, 2 every website that you go to in the world you'll see they 3 modernise their look and feel to look fresh, to serve their 4 client to find things easier, to do things easier. That's 5 an ongoing thing. We have to be exactly the same. We need 6 to be constantly raising the bar, not being satisfied of 7 where we are and I think we fell back in that regard. We 8 obviously need to commit to the safeguarding of the 9 confidentiality of tax payer information but at the same 10 stage SARS must not hide behind the confidentiality to 11 protect wrongdoing. How we get there I'm not sure. We 12 need some wisdom, some guidance as to how we get there but 13 while your tax affairs need to be kept confidential, if I 14 treat you in a certain way SARS must not be protected and 15 for me that's the most crucial thing, how do we balance 16 those two aspects? I'm not sure.

17 COMMISSIONER: Well, I'll tell you now.
 18 Integrity, that's all it requires. Sorry to interrupt you.
 19 I just thought I'd answer your question.

20 MR KINGON: Thank you, Judge. Obviously, 21 the issue of public interest in this space and I know that 22 there are many journalists sitting here and I've written 23 back in saying public interest does not trump Chapter 6 of 24 the Tax Administration Act. I've written many of those 25 letters but I don't want to hide behind Chapter 6 of the

1 Tax Administration Act. So yes, integrity, Judge, very 2 important. We must obviously commit to being politically 3 conscious as an organisation but we must never ever be 4 partisan in any way. Now I'd like to read this, "it is 5 said that great character is built in times of adversity
 6 and how well we rise above these events will be a true test
 7 for us as individuals and as an organisation. Resilient 8 institutions weather difficulties and are able to learn, 9 grow and mature through these adverse experience." This is 10 our hope, my hope and belief for SARS going forward and for 11 me it's most important that we look ahead.

12 I, maybe, some people here are saying sketch 13 quite a negative view of the SARS environment that has 14 existed. It gives me great joy as I go around that this 15 situation is not totally bleak. I go and I bump into 16 people, many people who're here, many other people and 17 they've got a hope. They've got a intent to do what is 18 right and I'll touch on something that so encouraged me a 19 little later. So, it's not totally bleak. SARS is a 20 functioning organisation as we sit here today and I think 21 we've seen, I think you've seen, I think you've seen test
 22 me, Judge, from many of my colleagues which just elaborate 23 that there is a working ethic and integrity amongst many, 24 many of our people and we need to harvest that in order to 25 move forward.

1 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, I must say in 2 layman's terms that this Commission has been blown away by 3 the quality of most of the people that we've come across 4 and interviewed. The quality and the talent is 5 extraordinary in this organisation and it's what gives us 6 hope as we do this work.

7 MR KINGON: Advocate, they're a unique
 8 crew. They are so unique, committed. You know, you go 9 into the - and I'm going to go back a few years - you'd go 10 into the test environment and you find people at 11 o'clock 11 at night testing software to ensure that the taxpayer can 12 submit the return. Testing fixes over the weekend, 13 ensuring they're there long hours to do the rollouts.
 14 People on Saturdays at the moment at our branch offices, 15 people at Beitbridge working in heat of 40 degrees, and 16 I've been up there, difficult circumstances but being 17 committed to do the right thing. We've got committed 18 employees and that I fully concur and I encourage them.

19 There are specific areas that need action. We 20 obviously, and one of the key areas and it comes back to 21 the revenue which the country looks to us to be able to 22 provide, we have to restore confidence and that's part of 23 the process of this Commission, restore confidence in the 24 organisation of SARS. We have to have confidence in the 25 tax system in our country in order to take ourselves

1 forward and there are many things that are on the table in 2 that regard. Just recently at the tax indaba we spoke of 3 cooperative compliance and the willingness of tax
 4 practitioners who've been messaging me even privately 5 saying we want to help; we want to come alongside you and 6 take this forward. Let's design a cooperative compliance
 7 model. But there are certain actions that we have taken 8 and are taking and I'd like to just inform and just convey 9 to the Commission in certain of these and I'm just going to 10 elaborate as I go, Judge, because I need to fill in gaps to 11 give you the understanding of the things.

12 In terms of the Davis tax committee we are in the 13 process of analysing, in fact, we had given some 14 submissions through of the many papers that the Davis tax 15 Commission has made. They've performed a huge amount of 16 work in this space and I'd like to just say and pause a 17 while and say that SARS has not given full cooperation to 18 the Davis tax Commission at all times in these last few 19 years that they've existed and I can't recall if Judge 20 Dennis Davis gave any evidence in that regard but there was 21 this reticence to provide information. I remember him even 22 asking me for figures on trust compliance and with regards
 23 to public benefit organisation and there was a bit of a - I
 24 don't know why - it's just a bit of fear in providing it 25 that was created and I don't think we did justice to this

1 process but we are doing justice in terms of the 2 recommendations. We don't agree with all of them but 3 that's part of the process going forward but we're doing 4 the analysis and we are hoping to make a way ahead.
 5 In terms of our information and communication
 6 technology ICT space and such we do recognise the challenge 7 of rebuilding this. There're many things, steps that we've 8 already taken. I was very encouraged that in the last two 9 weeks we've approved significant changes for the next 10 year's filing season. There are other significant changes 11 that are on the go. We have to be GRAP and I don't want to 12 bore people with technicalities but it is just the way that 13 we account for monies. We have to be GRAP compliant.
 14 There's a lot to do in the IT infrastructure space but we 15 need to come back, as per my discussion with the team 16 yesterday, we need to highlight one of the top areas we 17 need to fix there, let's go run with that and we are in the 18 process of that. I believe the groundwork has been laid 19 for filing season next year that is fundamentally going to 20 change the landscape of tax in our country forever and for 21 me that gives me great hope.
 22 I do believe that we can reverse the trajectory
 23 of the neglect of the IT space that we've seen in the last 24 four odd years. In terms of the service charter in our APP
 25 for last year we did commit to release the service charter.

1 shrinking it down to two pages, he'll remember those 2 discussions. But that's important. Service drives
 3 compliance and we need to do that. That's why we've 4 released the service charter. That's why we built in fact,
 5 and I'm going to bore people with things they don't know, 6 what we call a pulse dashboard. It basically gives the 7 pulse of our business that enables us to measure any aspect 8 of our business.
 9 Judge, on my iPad here now I can pull up how many 10 people are queuing in which branch. That's the type of 11 data we need to know where are our people queuing, where 12 are they not queuing, how many disputes, what's my debt, 13 etcetera, etcetera. So that's the service charter. Linked 14 to service obviously is the issue of refunds and refunds in 15 general will be an ongoing issue. As long as I've been at 16 SARS complaints of refunds taking too long have been there
 17 and the issue comes down to balancing risk and service. I 18 don't think we got it quite right yet and we need to find a 19 way - and I'll give you an example, there's certain 20 clientele whose tax returns whatever, whether it be VAT, 21 income tax, gets stopped either every year or every month
 22 or every second month, etcetera yet they are huge clients 23 who're not going to run away overnight. Should we be 24 stopping them every month? Shouldn't we be putting that 25 money back in the economy quicker and allowing those to

1 We finally got to release it on the 2nd of July; 1st of July
 2 was a Sunday. 2nd of July was a Monday where we launched
 3 the filing season at Alberton with the Minister of Finance 4 but we launched the charter which basically gives 5 aspirations for service delivery and it's an important 6 building block and undertaking by us to the public of 7 service and I want to just pause, Judge, and people, how do 8 we balance service and compliance? The carrot and the 9 stick as I put it in layman's terms. Primarily our driver 10 for compliance in our country must be service, not the 11 stick. Yes, you need the stick, you need the threat, you 12 need to know that jail awaits maybe. But if we can offer a 13 better service I think that we're going to encourage 14 compliance. If it's easy for me to make my PAYE
 15 submission, claim my ETI, pay my VAT, lodge a dispute, 16 submit my tax return, whatever it might be if I can just 17 make it that one little bit easier people will do it 18 willingly. I know even for myself if a form on the 19 Internet is difficult from some company - and by the way 20 all companies face this, not just SARS - but if a form is 21 difficult you park it. You don't get it done. It it's 22 easy you quickly do it and it's done. Simplicity is one of 23 the key things that we need to move and I think Mr Hore
 24 yesterday did elaborate on where we came with the journey 25 from the so called big buff form ad he drove me mad in

1 flow without the burden of compliance with the audit 2 processes? That would deal volumes in my team. It will 3 deal with getting money effectively back into the economy
 4 and I am in the process of looking at that and there's 5 certain announcements which I can't go into as yet in terms
 6 of this space. But we have to look at this because people 7 need the money back to run their businesses and we need to 8 make sure that that happens. But at the same stage, Judge, 9 I cannot believe the amount of fraud that we are facing in 10 personal income tax daily. If I was in a public forum I 11 would have asked my colleague who is sitting here from 12 business and individual tax, we stop hundreds of people who 13 simply trying to claim fictitious amounts for tax 14 deductions. I had one person in our office he even came to 15 see me with bodyguards and all. He'd claimed a R160
 16 million fictitiously for VAT and he thought it was right, 17 it was 100%. Now if this thing is an ongoing thig how do 18 you balance risk, service.
 19 COMMISSIONER: May I ask you about - 20 sorry?
 21 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, two questions
 22 about the refunds that have come up in the course of this 23 inquiry. There is a perception that there was deliberate 24 delay and deliberate withholding of VAT refunds in order to 25 artificially boost SARS's revenue at the moment that the

1 target is measured. Have you found any evidence to that 2 effect?
 3 MR KINGON: Direct evidence, no. Concern
 4 in areas, yes and obviously we would obviously have to look 5 at whatever that might be. The issue though, and it's - 6 refunds can be held back for multiplicity of reasons. It 7 could be held back because of an audit gets delayed or 8 whatever. Now is it intentional or not? I'm not going to 9 comment and I haven't got evidence to that effect.
 10 COMMISSIONER: Well, you say you're not 11 going to comment. I'd like you to comment. Is it 12 something that one must take up further? Is there someone 13 that we must ask whether there'd been instructions to hold 14 them back? So, in that regard I think I must interrupt you 15 and your very positive outlook and say we need to know.
 16 MR KINGON: Ja, Judge, I haven't got 17 evidence that an instruction in order to make the March 18 target or anything like that, that here's an instruction 19 stop now; we're not going to refund because we must make 20 the target. I haven't got evidence of that.
 21 COMMISSIONER: Do you have suspicion of 22 that?
 23 MR KINGON: I've got concerns about that,
 24 Judge, yes, with regards to -
 25 COMMISSIONER: Is concern different to a

1 suspicion?
 2 MR KINGON: Well, it is the same I
 3 suppose, Judge.
 4 COMMISSIONER: Ja, anyway whether we have 5 got time to look further and what we've got already we'll 6 have to deal with. I just wanted your assistance there.
 7 MR KAHLA: But who would give such a
 8 requirement that there must be a withholding?
 9 MR KINGON: You must remember - 10 MR KAHLA: In the posit that you have 11 just -
 12 MR KINGON: There're a couple of aspects
 13 and much can be said about this and even - I mustn't pre-14 empt matters of the next week which we've got the medium 15 term budget policies statement coming forward. There are 16 various ways that you can stop refunds. So obviously we 17 stop refunds for audit and investigation, etcetera. We 18 stop refunds for bank detail changes that are incorrectly
 19 done. Is there a way, is there a process whereby a person 20 goes into the system and saying we need to meet this target 21 tomorrow? Yes, it's possible. Where would that decision 22 come from? I think that we would have to go and 23 investigate.
 24 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, the other issue
 25 around VAT refunds there's been quite a bit of media

1 reporting around the Oakbay refunds and we'd like to 2 understand what you know about this. The -
 3 COMMISSIONER: Sorry, can I interrupt?
 4 Because we have had a conversation about that which you 5 probably perhaps are not privy to and that we've looked, 6 with your assistance, looked at these refunds and there are 7 in fact a number, I'm not sure it's necessary to work out 8 exactly how many but lots of refunds that have gone into an 9 attorney's trust account for example and refunds that had 10 gone to a non-associated company as well. I haven't gone
 11 into that a lot because I think you were yourself concerned 12 about that and you had yourself ordered an investigation?
 13 MR KINGON: Correct.
 14 COMMISSIONER: Could you just tell me
 15 what the outcome was of that?
 16 MR KINGON: Okay, so there're a couple of 17 aspects. The one issue relates to section 44 (3)d and 18 forgive me, I might get the sections wrong, of the VAT Act
 19 and its application as well as section 72 of the VAT Act.
 20 We've taken counsel view on that and we feel very 21 comfortable that in order to be VAT vendor in our country 22 with the exceptions as set out in 44 (3)d you require to 23 have a bank account in your own name.
 24 MS STEINBERG: So, what does that mean in 25 the case of what happened with Oakbay?

1 MR KINGON: It means that would not be
 2 permitted to refund to a third party bank account. So, I 3 launched an investigation and I don't necessarily, because 4 it's still in the process, the concern is twofold. The 5 first aspect is the decision to allow a third party bank
 6 account. The second aspect relates to are the refunds 7 actually valid and I've asked that both be looked at and 8 there's a long line of aspects with regards to the decision 9 on the banking details and the evidence that has been given 10 to me by the team that did the preliminary review for me
 11 which I've made available to you is that further audits - 12 and I'm going to use the word audit because it actually 13 used forensic - but because we're doing an investigative 14 audit space needs to be done on the validity, the actual 15 substance of the refunds in question. That is in process.
 16 COMMISSIONER: Sorry, carry on?
 17 MS STEINBERG: Are you suggesting that 18 the refunds were paid without that process being done, 19 without knowing if they were valid?
 20 MR KINGON: So, let me explain how the 21 process works because I think it's important, Judge.
 22 [10:23] All these things go through our risk engine and 23 get identified for normally what we call a verification
 24 audit and it's basically a documentary review. So if you 25 put before me documents and they look in order I would sign

1 off. They went through that process. Does that mean the 2 documents behind that, so I've got a VAT invoice from 3 Advocate Steinberg that was given to me, I'm claiming it as 4 an input for VAT, is that invoice valid. Is the VAT number 5 on it actually yours, did you actually pay over the money
 6 to SARS for me in order for me to claim it as an input.
 7 Those are the questions one needs to check. So yes the 8 documentary reviews were done. I've checked it and in fact 9 the person is in the audience who heads up that unit. On 10 the face of it the refunds look legitimate. There are 11 concerns that have been expressed to me and hence we've 12 moved on and we're doing further investigation.

13 COMMISSIONER: Can I just follow that up 14 because this one does concern taxpayer affairs but it's 15 been so much around and it's so controversial that I have 16 no difficulty dealing with it here rather than in 17 confidence. But I confirm with you, I looked at those 18 affairs, it went through a verification audit but that's 19 just a paper -

20 MR KINGON: Correct.

21 COMMISSIONER: There's a, we'll come back
 22 to that in another respect but then it comes to being paid
 23 to third party accounts. Now as I looked at that and I
 24 can't, I don't have the detailed knowledge you have, it 25 seemed to have gone through a regular process, in other

1 words I did not see any fingerprint of interference in the 2 process, is that correct?

3 MR KINGON: There's two aspects, Judge,
 4 so there would, there were certain changes in the bank 5 detail as I have the evidence that is been put and looked 6 at. In December 2016, early December 2016 where it went 7 through a standard process inside SARS which resulted in an 8 attorney's trust account being utilised to pay refunds
 9 into. That went through a standard process. There was no 10 interference or otherwise with it. Should it have been 11 approved, no. Is it unique, no unfortunately. In fact the 12 part of the process was, I asked that we look what other 13 vendors out there, remember, and maybe just to backup two 14 seconds. VAT vendors there's a specific restriction in 15 44.3.D with regards to third party bank accounts. The 16 income tax act does not have similar restrictions. So I
 17 can pay my refund to a third party. The law doesn't 18 prevent it as the same as the VAT law, VAT law prevents it.
 19 So the standard process was followed in December 2016 for 20 those attorney trust accounts and it was approved by the 21 teams, incorrectly in terms of the standard operating 22 procedure but I don't believe it was malicious, Judge and 23 you get things. People allowed deduction incorrectly, 24 mistakes are made just like at the bank. It, mistakes are 25 made. That's a fact. We then get a request in May of 2017

1 where there's a formal request to change to another third 2 party. That went through the process which has been in the 3 public domain which I prefer not to elaborate because 4 there's other processes underway pertaining to that at the 5 moment.

6 COMMISSIONER: Yes.

7 MR KINGON: We then get a further request
 8 later on in 2017 where 72 ruling was granted and further 9 changes were made to another company and that has also been 10 in the public domain. People have quoted that.

11 COMMISSIONER: Well you say, sorry can I 12 just, you say there's been a 72 approval, you're talking 13 about section 72?

14 MR KINGON: Of the VAT act.

15 COMMISSIONER: But I mean that didn't 16 permit that either.

17 MR KINGON: Correct.

18 COMMISSIONER: So that was also 19 incorrectly done though?

20 MR KINGON: In my view, yes.

21 COMMISSIONER: And that was just, that 22 was a payment not to an attorney's trust account but to 23 another company account but the company wasn't a subsidiary 24 and therefore it shouldn't have been -

25 MR KINGON: Correct.

1 COMMISSIONER: And you would have ended
 2 up in the situation there though that the act does not 3 enable you to repay VAT or even on the assumption it was 4 repayable. So you've got a bit of a catch 22.

5 MR KINGON: Correct.

6 COMMISSIONER: But nonetheless the law
 7 should be applied which is you can't pay it to the that 8 account.

9 MR KINGON: Correct.

10 MR KAHLA: Just clarity exactly on that 11 point. You're saying the people who processed it did in 12 good faith but in error, there was an error of law.

13 MR KINGON: December 16.

14 MR KAHLA: Are you -

15 MR KINGON: I'm talking the December 16
 16 one. But I want to just emphasise and we, a part of the 17 review that we did, I asked them to pick up what other 18 cases, sorry I was going down that road, now I got side-19 tracked. Forgive me. We have found a number of other 20 instances, nothing to do with the company we are talking 21 about now where attorney's trust account and other accounts 22 have been utilised as third party and that's gone through 23 normal approval processes but incorrectly. We have to see 24 how we're going to tighten this up because Judge if you go 25 back to pre-2009 the legislation had a certain wording and

1 then in 2009 you go and have a look at the explanatory
 2 memorandum that brought about the amendment in 2009 and it 3 was specifically there to prevent fraud and that was the 4 purpose for which the amendment was put in place which is 5 the wording of 44.3.D today.

6 COMMISSIONER: Anyway you know I just 7 wanted to clarify that because I did look at it myself and 8 a number of other taxpayer issues. Some with you, some 9 without you but it's difficult to interpret some of them 10 without assistance and my interpretation there was correct, 11 is it, that it went through the normal process, it 12 shouldn't have gone through the normal process.

13 MR KINGON: Correct.

14 COMMISSIONER: But it happens at time and 15 there was no fingerprint of -

16 MR KINGON: Correct.

17 COMMISSIONER: Interference.

18 MR KAHLA: What do you have to say about 19 the information of that taxpayer having ended up in the 20 public domain, bearing in mind the point that you've 21 emphasised around the sacrosanctity of confidentiality. Has 22 that ever been inquired on as to how that taxpayer's 23 information got put into the public domain?

24 MR KINGON: Ja, one must be very careful.
 25 When I was overseas in May, June, early June of 2017 and

1 where this happened and it leaked a short while later,
 2 there was and I'm going to put it bluntly there was a 3 witch-hunt as to who had leaked and people were made to 4 feel guilty who have got no reason to feel guilty, some of 5 them in this very room. I had to give an affidavit that I
 6 didn't leak that information. I wasn't even here but it 7 doesn't matter and one must be careful going on little 8 witch hunts because ultimately the innocent are the ones 9 who get victimised in the process. I have no evidence as 10 to how it got out into the public domain, I don't know.
 11 Whether, it comes back to the issue we're needing to 12 restore SARS to have integrity and trust, etcetera because 13 the heart of confidentiality is an important principle.

14 MR KAHLA: But do you have measures for 15 staff to raise issues where they believe there's been 16 conduct which doesn't accord with your rules, with your 17 standards, with the law, with the values of the institution 18 where they could raise them up and have them dealt with to 19 minimise the risk of information being then leaked out 20 because it's not been properly dealt with, because you 21 don't want to set up these leaks as a standard. That 22 cannot be consistent with the promotion of the law.

23 MR KINGON: No, 100% and I will, if you
 24 don't mind Sir, I'm going to get to a proposal which I'd 25 like to put. It comes down to, we do have what we call a

1 whistle-blower's policy. We, I'll get to that just now as 2 well just to touch on it. But we're needing to find a way
 3 and this comes down to the heart of what I said earlier.
 4 You don't want misconduct in an organisation to be 5 protected by secrecy. It's an important issue. But at the 6 same stage we're needing to find a way that staff have got 7 the ability to come forward and be protected in disclosing 8 things they believe to be incorrect.

9 COMMISSIONER: Well I know you said I'll 10 come back to but I would like to just follow up at the 11 moment on -

12 MR KINGON: Sure.

13 COMMISSIONER: What my colleague Mr Kahla
 14 said. You know it seems to me there are leaks and there 15 are leaks. There are some leaks that are used in order to, 16 in the course of intrigues, etcetera to discredit people 17 and so forth. There are other leaks, they're not really 18 leaks, they're whistle-blowers who will go to the press
 19 because nothing happens inside and that's what, you know 20 this is, I don't think this Commission would have been 21 established but for people having gone to the press because 22 things would not have been known and I mean you know people 23 went to the press and you're quite right to talk about the 24 litigation and what happened was to try and close the press 25 down, not because the taxpayer was complaining but because

1 there was a criticism of internally. That was what was 2 happening. So there are leaks, and leaks as it were and my 3 colleague is, you know he raises that and I think it's 4 quite correct. Now you've got, you can't, that happens 5 because you can't deal with them inside.

6 MR KINGON: Yes.

7 COMMISSIONER: Because you don't trust
 8 inside.

9 MR KINGON: We couldn't deal with it, I
 10 think Sir to be perfectly honest, the ability to raise 11 things that were wrong we didn't have the, I'm going to be 12 blunt and say I didn't have the courage maybe to raise some 13 of the things. We need to have that to be able to flow 14 freely to an independent body in my view that would be able 15 to investigate this and I'll get to this in a moment. But 16 we, you have to have it because if it wasn't, I'm a bit 17 schizophrenic here, Judge.

18 COMMISSIONER: No.

19 MR KINGON: Because on the one side leaks
 20 sadden me.

21 COMMISSIONER: No absolutely I -

22 MR KINGON: But on the other side if it
 23 wasn't for leaks we wouldn't be here today.

24 COMMISSIONER: Exactly, ja.

25 MR KINGON: So I'm a bit -

1 COMMISSIONER: You see the point is we 2 shouldn't be here today at all.
 3 MR KINGON: Correct. But, Judge, that 4 comes back to what you said earlier, integrity.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Ja and I know you're 6 coming to it and I'm sorry to press you but I would like to 7 just follow up on it. I think my colleague has raised 8 something very important because as I say but for that we 9 wouldn't have been here at all.
 10 MR KINGON: I know.
 11 COMMISSIONER: But at the same time we 12 shouldn't be here at all. Now how does one, how does one 13 stop that, in other words you say oh well it's a matter of 14 integrity we leave it behind, the Commission says well you 15 must have better integrity, people with greater integrity, 16 that's not enough.
 17 MR KINGON: Ja.
 18 COMMISSIONER: We know now that something
 19 must be done that people do have an outlet.
 20 MR KINGON: Ja.
 21 COMMISSIONER: That they don't have to go
 22 to the press because the problem with going to the press 23 it's seems to me a lot of what the press has said is 24 correct. But they don't get the full information, they 25 can't inquire further.

1 MR KINGON: Correct.
 2 COMMISSIONER: And so it creates even 3 more difficulty, not because of the press but because of 4 their limited ability to investigate.
 5 MR KINGON: Judge, I'd like to respond on 6 two -
 7 COMMISSIONER: So what does one do about
 8 that?
 9 MR KINGON: So my proposal which I'll get 10 to is an inspector general of type that has got powers that 11 can get this information to be able to receive this, act on 12 it with integrity to be able to investigate it, have access 13 to the SARS systems and to make a determination and an 14 instruction.
 15 COMMISSIONER: Well that's what I'm 16 thinking because that's what's happened here. Some of the 17 things that we've looked at have come from the press.
 18 Sometimes they're ahead of us because people are not,
 19 they're afraid to talk to us but they'll talk under cover
 20 to the press and you read it. Now it's been advantageous
 21 because we then have the power to go and look at it. Now 22 you need the two to be combined as it were.
 23 MR KINGON: Chair, Judge I've learnt far
 24 more from the press sometimes than I knew internally.
 25 COMMISSIONER: Well I'll tell you

1 something. We've learnt something from the press.
 2 MR KINGON: And I must be honest and, to 3 the media colleagues here, I dread getting their queries
 4 sometimes because it's one of those things but it's good, 5 it's part of a good democracy that we be held to account.
 6 But Judge, what is, the inspector general for me is the 7 solution to everything.
 8 COMMISSIONER: Ja.
 9 MR KINGON: And I'm going to speak to 10 that. But what it is not and to my IT colleagues, you know 11 what happened, we had all the cameras put up, that was 12 party to the thing. We've got cameras on the Photostat 13 machines that people are not copying things. We have got 14 our USB ports that I cannot copy things to a memory stick.
 15 Even on my laptop. I cannot copy things to a memory stick 16 because we're thinking those are the ways. We've got, I 17 had my own private iPad where I had my SARS email so at 18 night I could just sit in my bed and, yes watch a movie and 19 get my email done, in between. That was taken away, then 20 they give me a SARS iPad that I can just do that on. But 21 those security measures are not going to stay, take place
 22 because I can't take a photo shot of a thing with a camera 23 and send it off. They're so artificial it's, the back of 24 it we're needing staff with integrity uprightness, honesty, 25 lead with a higher purpose.

1 COMMISSIONER: It depends with your 2 camera, who are you spying on, are you spying on your own 3 staff or are you protecting your staff from other people?
 4 So it can be used for two purposes. I'd like to hear you 5 on the inspector general idea because it's become in my 6 mind more and more conscious of the fact that there ought 7 to be someone who has got for example the powers of this 8 Commission but at the same time the Commission doesn't 9 close off and go away, that someone remains here with these 10 powers to do exactly what's been happening.
 11 MR KINGON: I fully support that view
 12 Judge.
 13 COMMISSIONER: We talk about it when you 14 get to the appropriate time.
 15 MR KINGON: I will. Can I?
 16 MS STEINBERG: Please go on.
 17 MR KINGON: Thank you. Thank you, just 18 moving to disputes as a whole. I think it's important to 19 note that in respect of disputes the Ombud has launched a 20 systemic investigation with the concurrence of the Minister
 21 of Finance into the administration by SARS of objections 22 and appeals. I want to say publically that I welcome this 23 review as it is realised that a number of disputes that are 24 found in favour of SARS is far lower than the international 25 norms. Now it's an interesting thing, Judge. If you go to

1 the international norms, in the dispute process normally in 2 a proper, a tax administration more than 60% of all
 3 disputes will be found in favour of the taxman, of the tax
 4 administration. In SARS that is below 40%. Now that's a 5 significant risk. It's a risk because my staff are wasting 6 their time. It's wasting taxpayer's time, tax
 7 practitioner's time. We need to get on top of that and I 8 need to also say that, that we've got to acknowledge that 9 there are many areas where our timelines for disputes are 10 falling short of the standard as set out in the law. There 11 are specific timelines for this whole process. We need to 12 adhere them, we need to adhere to all the steps that are 13 there in the process and it's interesting to note that even 14 in the TADAT assessment this is the one area where we felt 15 short of in, in 2014 was in terms of disputes. Now I have 16 appointed a senior person within our legal space whose 17 doing this work for us and had already had meetings with 18 the Ombud and I believe a very constructive meeting has 19 been held. We must see these systemic investigations as 20 strengthening our hand not criticising us. It's part of 21 building the organisation. There's another one which I 22 don't have in my notes, the Pay as you earn, pay as you 23 earn account which there's another systemic investigation 24 into that where we applied certain rules, historically that 25 is confusing the taxpayers and us, I may say sometimes with

1 on at the moment, we speak of illicit financial flows and 2 there's large volumes, it depends who you believe in terms
 3 of illicit financial flows. There's a number of cases that 4 we've been busy with there. Tobacco we're all aware of the 5 give back, the money, the 7 billion programme that is being 6 run where they're putting pressure on us to get the money
 7 back to do this, to do that and to do the other thing.
 8 Tobacco is very much on the thing. The fuel industry which 9 is a major risk for us in terms of our economy, the last 10 one which I'd like to highlight is clothing and textiles 11 which is a serious risk and the risk there is slightly 12 different. Yes, there's tariff and VAT that is incorrectly 13 paid. But it goes down to jobs in our country.
 14 Our role as a tax, as the tax authority is the 15 protection of our economy as well and we had an engagement 16 with one of the main unions involved in the clothing and 17 textile industry and we've identified two product types 18 that we got specific focus with regards to the illicit 19 bringing in of goods and Judge, it's been a fascinating 20 journey for me to see the under valuation that is taking 21 place in an open fashion. We had a debate between two 22 people that was brought to our attention on email from a 23 supplier in a country which I won't name, where they said 24 no under valuation is still possible, it's possible this is 25 how you do it, laid out the ground work to do it. So those 1 regards to the reallocation journals that take place on our 2 pay as you earn account.

 3 Our chief officer of Finance is engaging with the 4 Ombud, already had an engagement on that one. So there's 5 two systemic investigations that are happening at the 6 present, one on disputes and one on accounts. On the 7 illicit economy, just moving on. We're looking forward now 8 and we've already approved that we're re-establishing this 9 and this week I had the privilege of signing off the 10 structure for the unit and we've already got 58 cases that 11 are being identified in terms of this unit and in fact the 12 person who is acting in that unit head is in the room with 13 us today. We're looking forward to the reestablishment of 14 this unit, the capacity that was destroyed in this whole 15 process for whatever reason it was destroyed and we believe 16 in so doing we can do it with proper governance and we can 17 do it in a transparent way. There's no need for cloak and 18 dagger. This, this needs to happen in terms of our 19 mandate, in terms of law, in terms of the framework hat is 20 set out in the tax administration act.
 21 MS STEINBERG: Can I assume Tobacco will 22 be back on the radar screen?
 23 MR KINGON: Yes. So very importantly,
 24 it's good that you raise that Advocate Steinberg, and 25 Judge, just to say that interventions that we're focusing

1 are the four areas. You are aware in the last week we had 2 arrest of SARS staff as well as police officers with 3 regards to stamping of documents.
 4 [10:43] That had to do with the fuel being taking out, so 5 called taken out but it is actually being siphoned into the 6 domestic supply chain. That's got a huge impact in terms 7 of my revenue. It's got an impact on the stability of the 8 Road Accident Fund and these things we need to get on top 9 of. So on tobacco the teams had a few raids on Thursday
 10 and Friday last week, we were looking at sellers in a 11 number of areas and we were quite successful in terms of 12 what we picked up. So we've started, the work is in 13 progress and I'm gratified that we've been able to get this 14 on the go. In terms of the Large Business unit, if I may 15 move along, what we're going to call it I'll make that 16 announcement in due course. Yesterday we had a discussion 17 with regards to this and we've agreed that we are 18 proceeding with the interim structure, by hopefully the 19 middle of December it will be in place with the interim and 20 the final structure, obviously with the appropriate head, 21 will be in place by the 1st of April 2019. But I want that 22 interim structure and staff being deployed. We do have an 23 accommodation issue in terms of Large Business, we will be 24 moving out in due course of where they're currently located 25 and my procurement office will be dealing with that with

1 the corporate real estate to ensure they're properly 2 located and obviously in the best place to service the 3 clientele which we have.
 4 MS STEINBERG: Just a question there, Mr
 5 Kingon. You are aware that there is concern within SARS 6 that the success of the Large Business Centre, as we 7 understood the evidence, was that it was an end to end 8 centre. And it had that 360 view of a taxpayer's affairs.
 9 Now there's concern that the new Large Business Centre does 10 not have all the components of the value chain. Can you 11 talk to that?
 12 MR KINGON: Yes I can and we intend to 13 have the end to end, it won't be in place immediately.
 14 MS STEINBERG: Right.
 15 MR KINGON: But in the end you must have 16 an end to end value chain in terms of this. Now we're not 17 talking, for instance the Finance office might be – we're 18 not talking those, you're talking of the tax value chain
 19 and I won't bore you because I could go into the tax value
 20 chain and identify many things there. But the value chain 21 for LB will be in place end to end, that's our intention.
 22 It's going to be a journey, Judge, we're probably going to 23 make a few mistakes, but I do believe we are strengthening 24 on what we had prior to it going, being closed in terms of 25 its format. The unit we had at the time was too isolated

1 from the rest of the organisation. So it was operating on 2 its own – it needs to operate within the framework of SARS, 3 it needs to be on service manager, it needs to operate 4 within that framework and we're putting that in place.
 5 I've got an excellent team that have been working on that 6 day and night and making proposals in that regard.
 7 PROF KATZ: Sorry, by tax value chain
 8 you're talking legal enforcement, all the support services.
 9 MR KINGON: Correct. Well the support
 10 services I think is part of the area which I'm not 100%
 11 clear, for instance yes they'll have Finance direct 12 support. But the CFO, they won't have their own CFO, if 13 you understand what I mean in terms of that process. The 14 High Court litigation unit is the next one I'd like to talk 15 to. Litigation it can be split into various parts, but 16 you're needing a specialist litigation unit that can deal 17 with the more complex litigation within the organisation.
 18 It is for twofold, obviously you want to save on legal 19 costs which we've gone into a little earlier, but you want 20 to use the skills that you have. This unit, as part of the 21 process, was disbanded and a decision has been taken, it's 22 in process, but it's early days, to reconstitute this unit.
 23 I can't afford and I sat with the tax advocate last week
 24 who had been perusing legal cost things and she had managed 25 to find time to do her masters and something else in the

1 meantime, but I've got an admitted advocate who's got years
 2 of experience in tax work basically twiddling her thumbs.
 3 That's unacceptable. This unit will be reconstituted and 4 it will deliver and provide the exceptional support that it 5 used to do insofar as impact for litigation.
 6 The Compliance Strategy unit a decision has been 7 taken to re-establish it and to actively, obviously monitor 8 tax compliance across the SARS business. We'll therefore 9 again activate the compliance evaluation monitoring 10 information system to measure taxpayer compliance levels 11 using compliance indicators. This is – I think some 12 evidence was led in this regard and we are – that decision 13 was taken which lay on ice, I don't know, it was taken 14 under Commissioner Moyane in June last year to reconstitute 15 it, but nothing happened. And we are just making sure it 16 happens.
 17 MS STEINBERG: I have a question here, Mr
 18 Kingon.
 19 MR KINGON: Yes.
 20 MS STEINBERG: It concerns lifestyle
 21 audits as part of the compliance chain. Two elements to my 22 question, we have sat with you during our in camera 23 evidence sessions and we've seen that individuals, who we 24 know from the media live very extravagant lives, declare 25 very little income. On the other hand we've heard evidence

1 here that SARS's auditors are hamstrung in investigating 2 this kind of problem because their KPIs are concerned with 3 the number of cases that they get through. And there's no
 4 space made for those long, difficult, complex cases. Now 5 putting those two things together there seems to be no
 6 lifestyle audit. So if someone who drives a Rolls Royce
 7 says I actually – I don't even reach to tax thresholds 8 here, nothing happens. We have sat together and seen that, 9 Mr Kingon and on the other hand we have auditors saying 10 well we are just trying to meet our KPIs every day. Are 11 you looking at this?
 12 MR KINGON: Let me, I want to tackle the 13 answer if I may, Judge, just with a few angles in terms of 14 this. KPIs drive certain behaviour and that by the way is 15 true in the debt space, it's true in the audit space. I've 16 seen it true in - even a telephone call you're pushed to a 17 certain time period, you cut it shorter, you could have 18 been serving a client, so KPIs drive behaviour and I think 19 we need to re-evaluate that in every area of our business.
 20 The ultimate thing is, obviously it needs in the service
 21 space, it needs to drive service, in the compliance space
 22 it needs to drive compliance. And if my KPI is driving a 23 performance that I don't look at everything there must be 24 something wrong and I would concur with that.
 25 COMMISSIONER: May I interrupt you there

1 just to get facts correct? I am told and I haven't 2 investigated it in great detail, but the audit KPIs are at 3 least weighted towards numbers rather than quality. Would 4 that be correct?
 5 MR KINGON: That is and I'm not an expert
 6 in this, Judge, but that is what I'm told yes.
 7 COMMISSIONER: And that's why you get for 8 example huge VAT refunds that are paid on no more than a 9 documentary, what do you call it again?
 10 MR KINGON: Verification.
 11 COMMISSIONER: Verification, but no one's 12 looking at whether the documents are genuine or not.
 13 Because the KPI is get though as many as possible.
 14 MR KINGON: I think, Judge, there's far
 15 more complexity to that aspect of the business. But yes 16 the KPI does drive that I get through it as quickly as 17 possible because I've got so many to do. It does drive
 18 that behaviour, but I think there needs to be a balance, 19 there has to be KPIs. We cannot have an investigation 20 where a person sits on a case for months on end and nothing 21 happens which I've also seen on the other side. So there's 22 a line somewhere in between. Are we right at the moment, 23 Judge? No.
 24 COMMISSIONER: I agree with you -
 25 MR KINGON: We have to evaluate that.

1 COMMISSIONER: - taxpayer affairs and I
 2 say emphatically that you're not right at the moment.
 3 MR KINGON: 100% and I would concur with 4 that.
 5 COMMISSIONER: So what does one do about 6 that, how do you then cater for volume and at the same time
 7 have people that are able to sit for six months and ask 8 questions about people's affairs. Have you got anything in 9 mind as far as that's concerned?
 10 MR KINGON: Well -
 11 COMMISSIONER: Sorry if I may interrupt.
 12 I would have thought that the one thing that taxpayers - 13 would make taxpayers reluctant to pay their tax is if 14 they're a middle bracket and they watch very rich people 15 not paying tax. It seems to me a very major thing towards 16 tax morality.
 17 MR KINGON: Agreed and that goes down to 18 are we applying the law fairly in every respect. Judge, I 19 grew up in - and I'm coming to the questions that the 20 evidence leader was asking, I grew up in a thing that and 21 maybe it was wrong, today we take a photo, but in those 22 days I used to have a pack of paper in cubby hole that if I
 23 saw a car that looked beyond the means of people I wrote it 24 down, the number plate. That was my context to - then you 25 would go check and it would lead then obviously through

1 process to an audit or investigation. The fact of the 2 matter is that we've probably moved to a point that we 3 don't look at that enough and as a result cases where a 4 person is driving a three and a half million car, but 5 declaring 200 000 per annum is not looked at. And we need 6 to get that right because it's unfair to you and I who get 7 paid a salary maybe and we're having to pay, pay as you
 8 earn. We have to get that right if we're going to restore 9 confidence in our tax system.
 10 COMMISSIONER: Well the question I'm 11 asking is are - have to get it right is one thing.
 12 MR KINGON: Ja.
 13 COMMISSIONER: Are you aware of it and 14 dealing with it or is it something that is just really - 15 MR KINGON: It is something that I must 16 deal with. I have not started specifically on this 17 journey.
 18 COMMISSIONER: Ja okay. Well if the 19 Commission says to you, you should start on that journey 20 will you start on that journey?
 21 MR KINGON: Yes, Judge.
 22 COMMISSIONER: I mean it's not an 23 impractical thing -
 24 MR KINGON: No it's not impractical, but, 25 Judge, it does premise that we are properly financed and

1 have the sufficient resources to be able to do it.
 2 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 3 MS MASILO: Mr Kingon, we've heard 4 evidence, you know, about the frustrations and the facts of 5 the disbandment of the High Court Litigation unit. And 6 you've said you are on the - you know, it's in the pipeline
 7 of being re-established. Do you have a date?
 8 MR KINGON: Not as yet, not as yet.
 9 MS MASILO: But it's been prioritised.
 10 MR KINGON: It is on and I've got the HR
 11 teams working on that at the moment. I haven't got a date 12 for you as yet.
 13 MS MASILO: Okay.
 14 MR KINGON: Can I just come back to the 15 lifestyle audit issue, if you may?
 16 MS STEINBERG: Please, please.
 17 MR KINGON: I think there's a couple if 18 aspects that I'd like to do. We used to call it a capital 19 reconciliation, basically taking a person's capital at the 20 point in time and at another point in time, looking at 21 their lifestyle, looking at their income and if there's a 22 net deficit it must come from somewhere. That's what a 23 lifestyle audit is. We need to be able to do that quicker
 24 to identify cases. In other words somehow in the case 25 selection process it would be my dream that we could do

1 that far more effectively using technology. In other words
 2 IT because we've got data from ENatis on cars, we've got 3 data of companies, I've got data of properties. I've got 4 data of yachts by the way. I've got data that we're going 5 to get even of service of vehicles ultimately. I've got 6 data of all your income, I've got data of all the 7 government grants and income that you're getting from 8 government, I've got a full picture of you. Why can't I do 9 this electronically and come up with a risk identify that 10 has done that lifestyle audit in a flash to identify the 11 case?
 12 COMMISSIONER: Well let me tell you that 13 you don't need to go the electronic systems yet. If you 14 want a starting point Advocate Steinberg and I can tell you 15 of a few.
 16 MR KINGON: Judge, I can tell you of a
 17 few as well.
 18 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, there are many 19 rumours in the corridors here that certain SARS executive, 20 leadership in SARS themselves there's that disparity
 21 between what they earn and their lifestyles. Now Mr 22 Makhubu suggested in his evidence that if you're a chief 23 officer or above in this organisation you should be 24 required to subject yourself to lifestyle audits. What do 25 you think of that proposal?

1 MR KINGON: He and I had spoken before he 2 gave evidence and he was the one who raised it in the 3 context and I forget where it was, I cannot remember. But 4 I fully endorse that. In fact I would go one step further,
 5 if I may. Is there not a place that senior public 6 officials tax affairs become public? It's a question I've 7 been asking myself and I don't know the answer to that.
 8 Just to say that obviously you are aware that the President 9 has made certain pronouncements with regards to lifestyle 10 audits.
 11 MS STEINBERG: Yes.
 12 MR KINGON: We are involved in that 13 process and our teams from investigative audit space, 14 etcetera have been supporting in terms of what can and 15 can't be done. We've obviously got the confidentiality 16 criteria that is there that needs to be adhered which does 17 bind us a little bit. But with taxpayers' approval you can 18 do it. My ultimate aim is obviously to collect tax. But 19 in terms of the President's way of things we are supporting 20 that process. I would support that from a senior SARS
 21 official point of view personally, but I would go one step 22 further in terms of exposing my tax records.
 23 MS STEINBERG: Thank you. Will you go 24 on?
 25 MR KINGON: Ja.

1 COMMISSIONER: Do you want a little 2 break, Mr Kingon?
 3 MR KINGON: No I'd prefer to get this 4 done, Judge, unless you want a break.
 5 COMMISSIONER: No, no you carry on.
 6 MR KINGON: I would like to get this 7 done. And it goes on, Judge, I'll get there, I will get 8 there. I printed my sheets in extra spacing that I could 9 just have it at a glance of an eye. The next issue, Judge, 10 much evidence has been led, I believe and obviously you 11 hear of the disciplinary processes that have been utilised 12 in the organisation whether it be from an investigative or 13 the discipline, the actual disciplinary processes. So I
 14 will be instructing and I haven't done it yet, I started 15 typing this week, but I got so caught up in terms of the 16 process to instruct our Human Resources to do an audit of 17 all the disciplinary cases that have taken place and are 18 taking place. This is to ensure that there is no spurious 19 or malicious reasons for the processes that have been 20 followed. We can't allow our internal investigative space 21 and the disciplinary processes to be utilised for anything 22 but pure purposes of preventing fraud and corruption. And 23 it's an important issue for me that we have to put in place 24 this review. I will be instructing this and it is my 25 intention that this be done in order to prevent future

1 abuse because my worry is what happens in future, when I'm 2 not here. What are the processes that should be in place?
 3 And I'll be making a proposal in that regard with regards 4 to the Inspector General. But in the short term I want to 5 set up an oversight committee of people who will basically 6 advise before a case is started and before a case is 7 prosecuted or not prosecuted because maliciousness can 8 happen both ways. You can decide not to investigate or to 9 investigate, you can decide to charge or not charge. I 10 want an oversight governance committee that will decide 11 this, not individuals. And that is what I intend to put in 12 place.
 13 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, a question to 14 you. It seems anomalous that the very individuals who 15 perpetrated this regime of fear and unfairness would now be 16 the ones to carry forward into the future. Is it not 17 perhaps appropriate to bring an outsider in to do this in 18 the meantime?
 19 COMMISSIONER: May I just add to that?
 20 My concern really is processes that are in place at the 21 moment, we can talk about a process for the future, but to 22 get some, you know to get some of the stuff out of the way 23 now that people are afraid of – 24 MR KINGON: That's what I'm wanting to 25 do.

1 COMMISSIONER: But I mean should – 2 Advocate Steinberg has asked the question, should the 3 people who actually instigated be the ones that audit it?
 4 MR KINGON: No.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Should one not get an 6 outsider in to look at all your processes in place at the 7 moment and say look this is spurious and this is 8 vindicatory and –
 9 MR KINGON: Judge, I do believe within my 10 teams I can find independently minded people. I really, 11 Judge, my money is so tight I don't want to go out again 12 and again and again.
 13 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 14 MR KINGON: My chief officer of Finance
 15 is going to give me a bit of a clip I think if I continue 16 to just spend money like this. I don't think it's 17 necessary to go out. I have got people of integrity. I am 18 not saying in what I've said that I'm going to use the 19 people who've been involved to review. They obviously have 20 to be involved to give evidence in terms of what they've 21 got or haven't got, but I need to find the independent. I 22 think you're right, Judge, I need to make sure that it's an 23 independently minded review and I'll put that in place and 24 make sure that that is – I just don't want to go and spend 25 more money –

1 COMMISSIONER: No I understand. But if I
 2 may just make a suggestion. I think it would be a good 3 idea to satisfy people that they're not being pursued for 4 ulterior purposes.
 5 MR KINGON: Yes.
 6 COMMISSIONER: Sorry carry on.
 7 MR KINGON: Just moving onto project
 8 management governance, I think evidence was led, Ms Sue 9 Burger, earlier this week, I think it was this week, the 10 weeks seem to -
 11 MS STEINBERG: Yes.
 12 MR KINGON: - to join each other and she 13 highlighted the delays from – and I call it the light bulb 14 moment, we need this until delivery. And there are 15 numerous governance processes in between. Business 16 requirements, specifications and we love using acronyms of 17 BRS etcetera, etcetera. But from that point and the 18 governance processes in my view is too long. We need to 19 find a way that we can be agile in this environment.
 20 [11:03] We need to be able to decide on something and 21 deliver on something within months, not years and so we 22 need to a fundamental review how we are going to do that.
 23 I haven't started this yet, but this is my intention. The 24 other aspect that I just wanted to touch on, currently our 25 end back approval is a rotating chairmanship, and a bid

1 adjudication committee. It is my view that the chief 2 officer of Finance needs to Chair this committee. He is 3 the accountable person, he needs to Chair this committee 4 and take accountability for it and it is my intention to 5 change the rotating Chair of this committee. I was going 6 to address some of the governance on the whole issue of 7 compromises, but governance in general needs to be there to 8 ensure that there is no maliciousness obviously, but that 9 we are abiding by the law and applying it fairly and 10 equitably, but if you have a look at the scope of 11 compromises, write offs, temporary write offs in the last 12 few years, my business is collecting money. Not writing it 13 off and we need to just make sure. I'm not saying there's 14 anything, but we just need to review it. It's a thing I 15 just wanted to put on the table.
 16 MS STEINBERG: Well, Mr Kingon we're 17 aware of debt that's been written off while there's still a 18 live dispute around that debt. Surely that can't be right.
 19 MR KINGON: I am aware of that case and 20 that will be part of the review. International peer 21 reviews, and I just wanted to touch on this. I did 22 reference earlier the TADAT and for those of you who don't 23 know what TADAT is, it's tax administration diagnostic 24 assessment tool, and in fact we've got a person in our 25 organisation trained on this. He won't be doing what I

1 want to say in a moment, but SARS does not act in 2 isolation. We're part of a world community. In fact the 3 tax community is quite a tight knit group, and we work 4 together in many, many aspects as you are aware. Whether 5 it be FATCO the common reporting standard, etcetera, but 6 accordingly we have requested that a TADAT assessment be 7 performed on SARS to determine its current status, and that 8 is I'm not sure of the exact, where it is today, but that 9 decision's been taken. Similarly in the customs 10 environment, the world customs organisation will be 11 requested to conduct a peer review on the SARS customs, and 12 we believe in so doing we can help strengthen. So we've 13 got the ombuds, we've got the Commission, we've got other 14 peer reviews. We must see that's all these building blocks 15 which will hopefully lead to a solid structure going 16 forward.
 17 PROF KATZ: Sorry Mr Kingon, on those 18 international peer reviews, historically weren't they 19 performed?
 20 MR KINGON: I am not sure Professor in 21 terms of the custom space, but as I indicated earlier the 22 TADAT one was done in 2014.
 23 PROF KATZ: OECD?
 24 MR KINGON: I'm not sure if there's an 25 OECD, I speak under correction. I don't know, but maybe

1 just while I'm on the OECD. I've had excellent engagements
 2 with the OECD since I came to office and we've restored the 3 relationship with them to the extent that if I've got any 4 area, they'll even get people to be seconded and to come 5 help train our people. So we need to use these 6 organisations. They've got expertise that we need.
 7 MS STEINBERG: With regard to the world
 8 customs organisation, we had evidence that shortly before 9 Bain came and restructured customs, the WCO had reviewed 10 customs and said it was doing well, it was on the up and 11 up, and there are a series of reviews before that. So it 12 seems there previously was that kind of relationship and 13 peer review going on in customs.
 14 MR KINGON: I don't know as I sit here.
 15 I couldn't say, but yes let's accept that. The question
 16 is, is then why change it and that's a question which I 17 will leave to the Commission. The fact though is what we 18 have seen happening and my acting chief officer of customs 19 can attest to this, and I'll get to this in a moment, but 20 in the customs space we've seen service deteriorate in 21 terms of how long it takes to clear goods, etcetera.
 22 PROF KATZ: But while you're on that, you
 23 were talking earlier Mr Kingon about in some of the BRICS 24 countries, they train for six months and that before and 25 you need it, I would suggest that a lot of these

1 international organisations OECD and that, would gladly
 2 help on training.
 3 MR KINGON: 100% and what has been 4 interesting Professor, is that even in the BRICS countries 5 on the customs space, there's a move towards having even 6 utilising each other's training facilities on certain 7 topics and there's a development in that regard that I 8 won't go into today, but yes. There is synergies to be 9 had. Even with our SADC countries. In terms of ATAP which 10 operates in Africa. We need to utilise all of these 11 things. We do not know it all.
 12 PROF KATZ: And that's cost effective,
 13 you don't have to pay for it.
 14 MR KINGON: It's hugely cost effective,
 15 and it benefits us as an organisation. Just touching on 16 protected disclosure and whistle-blower's policy, just to 17 say that we have re-written the policy. Obviously the 18 Commission, people have been fearful in coming here Judge 19 that they'll be victimised.
 20 COMMISSIONER: I know.
 21 MR KINGON: In terms of coming here. We 22 need to protect them. We do have a whistle-blower's 23 policy. We've re-written it to be a protected disclosure 24 policy with certain checks and balances. We need to 25 implement it. I haven't as yet, it's awaiting my

1 signature. Moving to displace staff. This is where we get 2 emotional again.
 3 COMMISSIONER: You know Mr Kingon, let me
 4 just disclose one thing about the inner workings of this 5 Commission. Ms Steinberg has had I don't know how many 6 boxes of tissues in her office for people she has seen.
 7 Yes, so -
 8 MS STEINBERG: I need a VAT refund for 9 the amount of tissues.
 10 MR KINGON: If I may on a lighter note,
 11 my chief officer Mr Fabian Murray can stand up. You can go 12 see him afterwards. Around 200 experienced employees were 13 displaced in the operating model review. Many of them were 14 highly skilled, hugely experienced people. Who had 15 accumulated years of experience and institutional knowledge 16 that is exceptional. I was thinking last night and in 17 preparation, how many years of experience. It runs into 18 thousands Judge, years of experience. Their expertise and 19 contributions have been sorely missed as the inefficiencies 20 and problems of the new operating model have become 21 apparent. We miss them. We have started a process of 22 recognising each person's particular skill, to match it to 23 a position and it is tendered where possible, and this is 24 something that we're considering. Can we reinstate them 25 and that is something that we are dealing with. This

1 process is unprecedented for us, and I invite my 2 colleagues, many of them are here, work with me, work with 3 us to achieve the outcome that is beneficial to everyone, 4 to SARS and most importantly to our country.
 5 MS STEINBERG: Just a question Mr Kingon.
 6 Your CO for DIST expressed the view that - 7 MR KINGON: Sorry, who?
 8 MS STEINBERG: Your CO for DIST expressed
 9 the view that in that space people with, who'd been in SARS
 10 for many years were less useful. Is that your view too?
 11 MR KINGON: Not at all. Totally the 12 contrary, they're extremely useful. We need to utilise 13 their skills to the full and it comes back to what I said 14 earlier. We've got a new generation coming through. They 15 can be used to empower them as well as deliver in terms of 16 the current mandate. You know, I engaged and the hurt of 17 the last week is exceptional. I engaged the IT team 18 yesterday and the pain in the room was tangible. They've 19 got vision, vision that I can only dream of. We need to 20 harvest that and it's how we do that that's going to be the 21 judge of where we are. When people look back, how are we 22 going to harvest those skills of these 200 resources and 23 others? That's what we're going to be judged on and in my 24 view we need to make a success of it. They are not beyond 25 their sell by date in the very least. In fact, to the

1 contrary their sell by date is many years hence. I think 2 my sell by date is closer than all of them in that room
 3 that are there and I feel very confident in that regard.
 4 MS STEINBERG: Yes. I don't know if you
 5 heard, but Mr Hore said that the only reason that business 6 doesn't poach those resources, is because they don't want 7 to disempower SARS, but they are the best in the country he 8 said.
 9 MR KINGON: I would concur with that.
 10 The trouble that you sit with, is when demotivating, things 11 take place and it affects your psyche. It affects the very 12 person you are. I've felt it. It's a fact. So I respect 13 Mr Hore, he is setting up a new bank and I respect that the 14 staff have not been poached. I need every single one of 15 those people. I need them and I need them to be doing 16 everything possible to rebuild this organisation.
 17 COMMISSIONER: You know, I've just made a 18 note here what you said earlier about succession. We've 19 seen some very, very good people here. Young people who 20 obviously have a future if they're allowed to use it. I 21 don't know how you get a succession without someone just 22 exceed as it were. In other words to pass down something 23 that you move on with. So it struck me as rather odd from 24 management to saying get rid of the old fellows and just 25 put in new people. You've got to go through the process of

1 succeeding as it were. If you want succession you must 2 succeed to do something.
 3 MR KINGON: Judge, the key to success is 4 balancing old with new.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Yes, ja -
 6 MR KINGON: It is not only new.
 7 COMMISSIONER: Ja.
 8 MR KINGON: Or only old. We have to 9 transform. Transformation has to be on our agenda as an 10 organisation. We're in a, we have to. We could not have 11 stayed where we were at in 97 when we came into being 21 12 years ago and not transform from there. You have to 13 transform, but you don't do it by just putting in new and 14 throwing out the old, because in so doing, you are failing 15 to reap the wealth, the thousands of years that I say 16 knowledge that we have. So we, I don't believe I've got a 17 model yet, Judge that deals with this, but we have to put 18 our minds to it, to ensure that proper succession takes 19 place. That when person A leaves, person B just 20 automatically steps into the shoes and can succeed in terms 21 of that, and ja.
 22 COMMISSIONER: You've got some 23 extraordinary good young people here. Do you know that?
 24 MR KINGON: I do know that Judge and they 25 put me to, I'm just astounded and let me just say also.

1 I'm astounded by their loyalty to the organisation. Many 2 of them could have left. I'm astounded.
 3 PROF KATZ: But there's huge
 4 institutional knowledge here.
 5 MR KINGON: Very much so. We have lost.
 6 We've lost institutional knowledge. There are many people 7 who have left, that I look and I say I wish so and so was 8 here to help with that or that or the other thing. But to 9 say we haven't, no. That's a fallacy. Just in terms of 10 people. The one area I wanted to touch on, and it's work
 11 in progress at the moment. We had a process whereby office 12 administrative support staff were being placed in different 13 grades all over the place. In other words there was no 14 standards being applied that you've got a standard grading
 15 process for office support staff. So it was very important 16 for us as an organisation to standardise that for going 17 forward, but there were a lot of people who were affected 18 in grades which were higher, and the process that was 19 undergone or that went out that was put in place, was 20 keeping the salaries of those people, but to downgrade them 21 in terms of grades. I'm reversing that. I'm in the 22 process of reversing that. It's amazing the amount of hurt 23 not touching a person's pocket, because that's not it. But 24 to downgrade a person, it's a hurtful thing.
 25 MS STEINBERG: It's about dignity I

1 think.
 2 MR KINGON: And we're putting in place
 3 the steps to reverse that. It costs us nothing in the 4 organisation. In future, the new grading model must be 5 followed. You can't have one office having a level 6 and 6 another office another level 4B as office support. That's 7 not fair to anybody, because they're expected to do similar 8 work. So that is work in progress, but I just wanted, 9 those are the two areas that I just wanted to touch on. A 10 very important part of our business is customs, and my 11 acting chief officer says he often feels like an orphan, 12 but and I do want and I am speaking also to my staff here
 13 Judge. I'm probably abusing you a little bit in speaking 14 to my staff.
 15 COMMISSIONER: No, you're not doing that 16 at all. I assure you.
 17 MR KINGON: But customs -
 18 COMMISSIONER: I think it's quite 19 appropriate.
 20 MR KINGON: Customs is an important
 21 aspect, an equal aspect of my business and it's important 22 that customs be given the recognition that they need. We 23 are fundamentally changing the way we view and carry on our 24 mandate in this regard. In addition to simply being an 25 administrative authority that extends control over the

1 cross boarder movement of goods, we will be enhancing our 2 customs service, and just to say when a container is 3 stopped, there are various things that play out in terms of 4 a container stopped.
 5 There are costs involved in a container being 6 stopped to the person who is buying those goods, and it's a 7 huge cost. I speak under correction, but they call it 8 demurrage costs and they have got their own language, 9 customs. I think it's around R18 000 a day for that 10 container to be stopped. If you're bringing in goods and 11 we stop it for longer than necessary, that's impacting the 12 cost to the economy. We cannot afford it and we should be 13 closer to two days to releasing those containers, but I
 14 believe we were getting closer to the 23 day mark. Now 15 that's unacceptable and we need to fix that and we're in 16 the process of fixing that and I'm excited about this.
 17 What was also very interesting Judge, is that often the 18 container stopped, the duty that is levied by the process 19 correctly is far lower than the demurrage cost, the extra 20 costs in stopping that container. The other issue we need 21 to understand in our business, is that in our country the 22 automotive industry is a major aspect of our economy and 23 they work a lot on the just in time principle. In other 24 words goods come just in time for their factory lines. We 25 can't afford delays in those processes. We need to make

1 sure that we are not costing the economy in terms of this.
 2 We need a mind shift change that requires cost, customs 3 officers to have a better appreciation of the impact of 4 their actions or lack thereof in the economy. The 5 unwarranted delay of legitimate trade is unacceptable, and 6 it's a cost to the current, to the economy and specifically 7 in the current economic climate we can ill afford.
 8 I have mentioned that we're overhauling training, 9 and I don't think I'm speaking out of turn that our acting 10 chief officer of customs wants to introduce a new induction 11 course for customs officers by year end, to ensure that we 12 start this process of the proper training and equipping our 13 staff to deal with what is out there. Equipping our staff 14 and let them understand that the values, our core values 15 that we as an organisation hold dear to. So that is work 16 in progress, but a skill level across tax and customs, is a 17 fundamental building block in order to be a successful
 18 revenue service. We have also enhanced our engagements 19 with trade so that we can respond to the needs that are out 20 there. I've had meetings and I think you've had evidence 21 led by the South African Association of Freight Forwarders, 22 who is a representative body. We've had engagements and 23 we've had very constructive engagements and the feedback 24 I'm already getting is that things have turned around in 25 the custom space and I want to compliment my staff for the

1 work that they're doing in that regard. We are going to 2 change this business. We're going to make it a success and 3 I believe we're going to see a new SARS arising, as a 4 phoenix out of the ashes and we're going to make a thing.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Well you've only got 30
 6 days left to do all of this.
 7 MR KINGON: I've got a little longer than 8 30 days.
 9 COMMISSIONER: 60, no how many of your 90
 10 have gone?
 11 MR KINGON: I've got another 60 Judge.
 12 COMMISSIONER: Okay. Can we have a 13 little break? It's -
 14 MR KINGON: You may, Judge.
 15 COMMISSIONER: Thank you.
 16 MS STEINBERG: Sure.
 17 [INQUIRY ADJOURNS INQUIRY RESUMES]
 18 [11:44] COMMISSIONER: Okay could we settle down
 19 a bit. Thanks.
 20 MS STEINBERG: Can you settle down
 21 please.
 22 COMMISSIONER: By the way while we're
 23 settling down. Norman I want to compliment you, you know 24 you produce these transcripts so rapidly. We had a seven 25 hour day and at 11:30 that night you sent me a whole

1 transcript. Extraordinary. Thank you.
 2 MS STEINBERG: Can you carry on, Mr
 3 Kingon.
 4 MR KINGON: Maybe Judge, forgive me I'm 5 not very sympathetic to people who might smoke or 6 otherwise. I tend to carry on with meetings without 7 thinking that people, so I just carry on. It's my nature 8 forgive me.
 9 COMMISSIONER: No, no don't worry about 10 that.
 11 MR KINGON: Judge, just to, somebody at 12 the break just informed me and it's with regards to the 13 international assessments. We have had had four done in 14 the customs space. So I wasn't aware of that and I'm not 15 sure of the content I don't know, I can't speak to it. But 16 it's important that we understand that. I was dealing just 17 with trade and the issue with trade, you know it's actually 18 very few people who deal with the majority of the trade.
 19 We must make sure that we service them properly. That's 20 why it's important that we engage with entities like staff 21 to ensure that they, that we understand their pains and 22 it's exactly like with the recognised controlling bodies.
 23 You must engage your clientele at all times and be open to 24 criticism to hear what they are saying because then you can 25 be far more responsive. So in the customs spaces it's

1 equally so.

2 We will also be enhancing our international

3 engagements at a bilateral regional and multilateral level

4 to ensure that South Africa is able to influence global

5 customs developments and reap practical benefits for local

6 companies in foreign markets. This is important to us. So

7 just recently my colleagues and I were in Beitbridge, we

8 had a bilateral with the Commissioner, the Commissioner

9 general from Zimbabwe. We've had meetings with Lesotho.

10 We've had meetings with Swaziland. These are part of the 11 things that we have to do and we've got to be, I don't

12 know, I just need more hours in a day, but we've got to do

13 it far more to build up these relations because ultimately

14 a lot of our trade goes through these neighbouring

15 countries and we need to ensure that we've got good

16 relations because ultimately you want to lead to an

17 exchange of information, Judge, automatically flowing that 18 you, you really don't have to wonder what's crossing the 19 border. You've actually got advance information and I

20 believe that you are aware of that.

21 Customs is important, we need to focus on that 22 but we have turned the corner I do believe and I want to

23 commend all the custom staff, Judge, who sit in areas and 24 conditions that are unacceptable and difficult. I mean

25 some of the border posts are far from things that you and I

1 would regard to be the things you'd like to have close to

2 you. We need to remember that and just take cognisance of 3 that. I come to certain recommendations to the Commission

4 and I'm going to read a little bit more because I want to 5 be more specific here.

6 COMMISSIONER: No, indeed.

7 MR KINGON: We are at a historic

8 milestone in our development. Although we are not proud of 9 why we are here, we recognise that this is an opportunity

10 to make amends and to ensure that these mistakes are not

11 made again in future and that is my prayer, that we will

12 never see this again. We are mature enough to recognise

13 that SARS's conduct has opened us up to criticism and 14 censure and we are humble enough to accept whatever

15 corrective action our principals may recommend. In my view

16 if SARS leadership is mature, if SARS leadership has 17 integrity and the required technical expertise any

18 governance model will work. However we are not perfect and 19 we have to seek a more appropriate and robust practical

20 governance framework that enables us to do our job and as

21 I've indicated earlier that monitors us far more

22 effectively and no offence to the media but we shouldn't be 23 monitored by the media or wait for the media to respond.

24 We should have already dealt with these matters upfront.

25 I would like to request, Judge, the Commission to

1 make recommendations on such a governance framework.

2 Having listened to the evidence before this Commission and

3 especially on 31 August by the Honourable Judge Dennis

4 Davis it is clear to me that it is essential to maintain

5 SARS's autonomy and I, knowing the Professor's view in his

6 reports he would concur with that because that's what led

7 to where we were. So we need to maintain SARS's autonomy

8 with regards to the administration of tax and customs.

9 It's important. SARS must have independence within the 10 framework of tax policy that is determined by National

11 Treasury. It needs to determine its own strategy, its own

12 enterprise, it's operational policies and processes and to 13 set its own budget and to appoint and allocate it's human

14 resources. We need those abilities in order to take 15 ourselves forward. The challenge for the Commission,

16 Judge, is how to balance this autonomy with effective

17 oversight. Some of the proposals that have been made

18 include the appointment of a board, or the setting up of a

19 body such as the Inspectorate of Taxes and Customs. In my 20 view a board has challenges and we did have a board in the 21 early days of our organisation. It is periodic, in other

22 words it only meets from time to time. It probably will 23 not have dedicated resources allocated to it unless that is 24 part of the framework. It will not have the required

25 infrastructure or permanency to act as a constant presence

1 overseeing SARS and that's what worries me about a board.

2 Personally I would prefer a body similar to the statutory

3 permanent inspectorate of tax and customs. That has the 4 legal authority to -

5 PROF KATZ: Sorry, can you go a little

6 slower.

7 MR KINGON: Sure. Forgive me, Professor.

8 No, no let me start that again.

9 PROF KATZ: No, no Norman's got it all

10 down.

11 MR KINGON: To reiterate.

12 PROF KATZ: Norman is better than me,

13 okay.

14 MR KINGON: To reiterate -

15 MS STEINBERG: And we'll publish, we will

16 publish your final version too, Mr Kingon.

17 MR KINGON: Ja, there are some changes I

18 do need to make.

19 COMMISSIONER: No we'll make them but in 20 fact we're going to put that on the website.

21 MR KINGON: That's fine. Let me repeat.

22 That personally I would prefer a body similar to the 23 statutory permanent inspectorate of tax and customs that

24 has the legal authority and the supporting infrastructure

25 and very importantly to access SARS's confidential and

1 taxpayer information in order to execute its performance
 2 monitoring role and impose itself on SARS when necessary.
 3 In this way the integrity of taxpayer information can 4 remain intact at all times.

5 In addition to the traditional powers of 6 oversight over the performance of SARS such an inspectorate 7 and I'm changing my view of saying could, to say it should 8 have the power to oversee internal investigations of staff.
 9 It could also have the power to act as a nominations 10 committee for the appointment by the Minister of Finance of 11 the Commissioner and deputy Commissioners. In my view the 12 inspectorate would report to the Minister of Finance. In 13 the coming weeks it is my intention that SARS will step up 14 to the plate and do some research on the options that may 15 be available in this regard and we, I intend that we make 16 some submission, I was getting somebody to start that 17 process last night as to who can do it, to make submissions 18 to you Judge and the Commission with regards to this 19 proposal. It's important that we put this in place, we 20 cannot be where we are today again and I would appeal, 21 Judge, if I may that you consider this matter and we will 22 support your recommendations in this regard.

23 COMMISSIONER: Mr Kingon, let me just, do 24 you want to put all your recommendations and then come back 25 to some?

1 MR KINGON: That concludes my major
 2 recommendation. I'm going to conclude with some comments 3 then in conclusion.

4 COMMISSIONER: Yes.

5 PROF KATZ: Just on the timing on that?

6 MR KINGON: I intend to do the research
 7 very quickly, have that done very quickly. I don't know 8 how long they expect, because it requires a legislative 9 mandate. That would probably only happen in the next year 10 or two. I'm not sure when that will be.

11 PROF KATZ: Sorry the timing of your 12 submissions?

13 MR KINGON: No we will -

14 PROF KATZ: The Judge asked me to get on 15 with it.

16 MR KINGON: Professor I have not told the 17 staff who may be watching online as we speak, but I'm 18 telling them now that I'd like it two weeks to give to the 19 Commission.

20 COMMISSIONER: Ja, please, if you would 21 because you know we have to report and I don't like delay 22 myself, I, we're supposed to report final finally to the 23 President at the end of November. That's not long and 24 there's a huge amount.

25 MR KINGON: 100%.

1 COMMISSIONER: To report. So if you
 2 could just urge them on. We would like to see what you 3 have to say on that.

4 MR KINGON: I will do that, Judge. I'm 5 putting them on the spot and but it is my intention. We 6 want to support you in this process.

7 COMMISSIONER: I just want to talk to you
 8 about that Inspector General because I think that it's 9 vital myself. They have one in America, they have one in 10 Australia, I think I've read some of that. I would have 11 thought that you want, your inspector general is here to, 12 as a backstop as it were for what happens internally, 13 nothing to do with taxpayers.

14 MR KINGON: Correct.

15 COMMISSIONER: It's about internal 16 things. Shouldn't be interfering with the Commissioner, 17 but he should be a place that you can go to.

18 MR KINGON: Correct.

19 COMMISSIONER: If there are problems.

20 MR KINGON: Correct.

21 COMMISSIONER: And let me just, give me a
 22 moment.

23 MR KINGON: Forgive me.

24 COMMISSIONER: There are two questions
 25 that arise, thirdly it seems to me that inspector general

1 should have as it were the powers that this Commission has 2 to say Mr Kingon I want this tomorrow and Mr Kingon has 3 done so even though he's been annoyed and I want to look at 4 the taxpayer affairs, and I want to summons someone if 5 necessary, that they will come and talk to me. Do you have 6 any difficulty with any of that?

7 MR KINGON: Not at all. As long, you 8 know in any framework that you put in it's got to be in 9 support of your management of your organisation. Not as a 10 distraction of your management of your organisation.

11 COMMISSIONER: That's right.

12 MR KINGON: And I think in terms of even, 13 obviously things need to be reasonable in terms of the 14 management, you can't be running at every second to the, 15 you've got to run the organisation. Ultimately whoever the 16 Commissioner may be, has to run the organisation but we, he 17 needs the power as you've elaborated on, he needs those 18 powers and we need to assist in order to deliver on his 19 mandate.

20 COMMISSIONER: Ja, hopefully the 21 Commissioner would have nothing to do, the investigator 22 director or whatever would have nothing to do, hopefully.

23 MR KINGON: That would be the dream.

24 COMMISSIONER: Yes and as I say I think 25 it's very important that he's not, he doesn't, he doesn't

1 interfere with management.
 2 MR KINGON: Correct.
 3 COMMISSIONER: He should be the last 4 resort as it were.
 5 MR KINGON: Correct.
 6 COMMISSIONER: But when he is called upon 7 he should have powers to act decisively.
 8 MR KINGON: Correct and I liked your 9 statement because very important that we differentiate 10 between the process of the tax Ombud.
 11 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 12 MR KINGON: Which is service and taxpayer
 13 driven.
 14 COMMISSIONER: Ja.
 15 MR KINGON: And what we are saying the 16 inspectorate being internally focused as to the SARS, the 17 things that we want to be held accountable on, where we're 18 putting secrecy as a bar for instance today. That's what 19 we want them to take ownership of.
 20 COMMISSIONER: The other thing that 21 arises and maybe it's just something you want to look at in 22 making your recommendation. To whom should the inspector 23 general be accountable, I have difficulty, you said the 24 Minister, well the Minister is a political appointment at 25 the end of the day. Is it Parliament, I don't know, will

1 you think about that, where does, who controls the 2 controller as it were?
 3 MR KINGON: Ja.
 4 COMMISSIONER: Just think about that.
 5 MR KINGON: Let us give it some thought.
 6 My proposal which I did put in my submission is to the 7 Minister of Finance, it could be to Parliament. I need to 8 take a call on that. I'm not in a position to say one or 9 the other. It needs to be accountable to somebody -
 10 COMMISSIONER: Correct.
 11 MR KINGON: And we need to determine who 12 that somebody is.
 13 PROF KATZ: While you're thinking about 14 it, I think with respect obviously I've been thinking about 15 this one. I don't think it's either or. On some matters 16 that the inspector general picks up it would talk to the 17 Minister, on other matters if it involved the minister as 18 well he would go to another avenue but I don't think it's 19 an either or, it's both.
 20 COMMISSIONER: Anyway think about it.
 21 MR KINGON: We will consider that in the 22 research that we do. Let's look at other jurisdictions.
 23 Let's not go and reinvent the wheel.
 24 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 25 MR KINGON: Ultimately in my position as

1 acting Commissioner and I believe whoever is the 2 Commissioner we need to be accountable for our actions and 3 that is the fundamental aspect that needs to be addressed.
 4 The how we need to get to.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Exactly, what I have in 6 mind is that the investigator, what do you call them, 7 inspector general, inspector general is the ultimate 8 whistle-blower as it were.
 9 MR KINGON: Yes.
 10 COMMISSIONER: Ja.
 11 MR KINGON: And for me he could be the 12 one for instance the protected disclosure policy, he must 13 administer that type of thing.
 14 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 15 MR KINGON: We need to put those checks
 16 and balances in place.
 17 COMMISSIONER: Give it some very serious
 18 thought it you will.
 19 MR KINGON: We will.
 20 PROF KATZ: Whilst he's doing that. Can 21 I raise another issue on governance. So what we're talking 22 about is oversight. Now the kind of oversight we've been 23 talking about now is almost an integrity oversight. But 24 then there's also a competence or an administration, the 25 decision that the Commissioner takes where the statute says

1 in a discretion of the opinion of the Commissioner. On 2 that, that's not an integrity, do you think it's useful on 3 that one to have a deputy Commissioner who in certain 4 matters would assist the Commissioner where he exercises a 5 tax discretion.
 6 MR KINGON: Professor, I think I'd like
 7 to do some more research before I make a submission in that 8 regard. There's various models that could work in that 9 regard. I think it would be remiss of me to go further at 10 this point in time without doing the proper research.
 11 COMMISSIONER: Well I think that, if I
 12 may just follow up on that. You've mentioned a board and I
 13 have your reservations about a board as well. I don't 14 think it can be of any great assistance. But the question 15 does arise ought there to be one or more deputy 16 Commissioners who, while having no power over the 17 Commissioner, at least are there as number 1 support of the 18 Commissioner and the other one is push back against the 19 Commissioner, if he's making the wrong decisions.
 20 MR KINGON: Correct and, and -
 21 COMMISSIONER: Will you think about that,
 22 whether there should be that level.
 23 MR KINGON: The push back that needs to 24 happen in that management structure needs to be able to 25 happen with absolute integrity without any risk of a person

1 being side-lined.
 2 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 3 MR KINGON: Or pushed down.
 4 COMMISSIONER: Well that's where the 5 inspector general comes into it.
 6 MR KINGON: Correct.
 7 COMMISSIONER: But the question I'm 8 asking and I think the Professor is also interested in and 9 I'm sure my colleagues. Do you have a level of deputy 10 directors one or more as been suggested, or doesn't that 11 just, isn't that just an unnecessary step before your EXCO?
 12 In other words EXCO should be performing that role.
 13 MR KINGON: Ja, there's various models
 14 there, Judge, and I think for me to comment what would be 15 the best approach, I really would prefer not to at this 16 point in time.
 17 COMMISSIONER: I'm just, all I'm doing at 18 the moment is raising things I'd like you to think about.
 19 MR KINGON: No -
 20 COMMISSIONER: I'm not looking for 21 answers, I'm just giving some suggestions of what you 22 should you look at.
 23 MR KINGON: Correct.
 24 COMMISSIONER: And the other thing that 25 comes from that, should there be a formal EXCO, in other

1 words not one you can disband overnight.
 2 MR KINGON: Those were the issues,
 3 ultimately the EXCO is an advisory body to the 4 Commissioner.
 5 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 6 MR KINGON: It has not statutory form as 7 such. The accounting officer is the Commissioner, full 8 stop.
 9 COMMISSIONER: Yes. Yes exactly.
 10 MR KINGON: Would we need something
 11 beyond that, I'm going to give it some thought and I'm 12 going, we're going to do some research so the areas that 13 we're going to look at, Judge, is the structures with 14 regards to that top structure, what is good practice.
 15 COMMISSIONER: Yes.
 16 MR KINGON: Because this is where, the 17 OECD I think even has got some details on this which we 18 could probably go and pull out and see what is best 19 practice.
 20 COMMISSIONER: Okay.
 21 MR KINGON: And then the inspectorate
 22 general of taxes and customs, we need to do some research.
 23 COMMISSIONER: Just to be clear on that.
 24 I would like you in due course give us your view on whether 25 a formalised EXCO -

1 MR KINGON: I would have -
 2 COMMISSIONER: Number 1 greater
 3 accountability because it is a formalised body and number 2
 4 greater confidence to be able to deal with the Commissioner 5 and make sure that you are on the right track.
 6 PROF KATZ: Sorry Judge, just two more
 7 things there, to think about, is the deputy Commissioner 8 good from a succession point of view, if something happens
 9 to a Commissioner, unfortunate death, illness, is that a 10 good idea that you have a deputy who would fill in 11 forthwith, no answer now.
 12 MR KINGON: Ja.
 13 PROF KATZ: And secondly in your 14 governance thinking what decisions should the Commissioner 15 have to get from an administrative point of view the 16 minister's concurrence. For example bonuses, salaries that 17 kind of thing, expenditure, etcetera.
 18 MR KINGON: 100%. I take note of those.
 19 COMMISSIONER: Anything you want to 20 raise? Mabongi, do you want to raise any other governance?
 21 Anyway we'll hear from you hopefully soon.
 22 MS STEINBERG: Mr Kingon, before you
 23 begin with your concluding remarks I just have a final 24 question for you.
 25 [12:04] SARS spent just shy of R400 million on Bain and

1 Gartner. Now Bain has said in the media that there's some 2 form of offer to pay back the money that was spent on them.
 3 They've also said that they will wait for this Commission 4 to make a recommendation in that regard, and my question to 5 you is if the Commission recommends that all the money is 6 paid back to SARS, what would you do with it?
 7 MR KINGON: I will invest it in my IT
 8 infrastructure as a starting point. I would like to invest 9 in terms of my empowering of my staff through training, 10 proper training happening. There are certain key areas 11 that we need to look at. If we got all of that money 12 tomorrow, I'm not going to waste it. We've got to refresh.
 13 We've got to fix and redo the e-filing platform to be 14 totally user friendly. My dream, my dream is that I don't 15 have clients in the branch. I don't want tax practitioners 16 coming into a branch. If I can give them a self-service 17 option for end to end, it takes a huge burden off my staff.
 18 Ultimately I'd like to get self-service options as being 19 the principal, just like ATM's became for the banks, took 20 the people away from the tellers and online banking, that's 21 what I'm wanting to do. So I would like to invest into 22 that aspect. I need to look at consolidating buildings.
 23 For instance we're wasting with multiple buildings.
 24 There's staff, I mentioned earlier I've got customs staff
 25 living in conditions that are not ideal. We need to fix

1 those things. Now I've got to look at which is the 2 priority obviously, but IT infrastructure for me and we've 3 seen it this week. There's some critical things we have to 4 do there to make sure that we take the organisation forward
 5 in that regard. What I want to assure you, I'm not going 6 to go put down a new carpet. I'm just being factitious
 7 here, but tomorrow, just when I get the money. We're going 8 to invest it in things that serve our clients better and 9 that's what I'll do.

10 COMMISSIONER: I want to just make one
 11 thing very clear. You say what you would like to do. I 12 think we're talking in a bit of a vacuum here.

13 MR KINGON: Ja.

14 COMMISSIONER: Number one, I read a press
 15 release from Bain. No one has asked this Commission to 16 make any decision about anything, and we will not be making 17 a decision about what should happen to money that we 18 haven't been asked to make. I don't know if the money is 19 available or not. We spoke to Mr Min there. I am still 20 unclear as to what he has in mind, but we have not been 21 asked to do anything. So don't spend the money just yet if 22 you don't mind.

23 MR KINGON: No, no, no.

24 COMMISSIONER: And I'm not going to,
 25 we're not going to make any recommendations at all about

1 what they should do with money if they haven't offered to 2 do anything with money.

3 MR KINGON: Maybe Judge, to emphasise.
 4 Everything's got to be done with prudence in the form of 5 governance, I don't spend money I don't have obviously.

6 COMMISSIONER: No, that was said lightly.

7 MR KINGON: Ja.

8 COMMISSIONER: I just, we don't have to 9 discuss it, I just want to make sure we all understand.
 10 This Commission has not been offered any opportunity to do
 11 anything, and until it happens we won't and I don't believe 12 that until I hear Bain saying anything about this, well I 13 don't believe that the money is available.

14 PROF KATZ: But this is a matter
 15 inherently between SARS and Bain.

16 MR KINGON: Exactly.

17 PROF KATZ: And SARS and Gartner. If 18 people have let you down or people have caused harm, it's a 19 civil matter.

20 COMMISSIONER: Well, I'll tell you now
 21 that if a letter came tomorrow and said make a 22 recommendation, I'll say pay it back to where you got it 23 from.

24 MR KINGON: Judge, if I may comment, if 25 you don't mind on this matter. I've been shocked by what

1 I've heard in evidence with regards to both these 2 contracts. Shocked with regards to pre-discussions, 3 shocked with regards to using outside people who ultimately 4 benefit to prepare frameworks for how the work should be 5 done, to the extent look it's just unacceptable. It's not 6 the behaviour that we want to, it's not good governance and 7 we cannot allow that to happen. The chief officer of 8 Finance has already engaged with Bain and we've had 9 engagements, I think he's alluded to that. I'll be honest 10 with you Judge. I wasn't clear from the press releases 11 that I heard as to what was going on. I have not been 12 clear and I haven't been clear subsequent. We have also 13 asked for an engagement with Gartner, which engagement will 14 happen in due course. But that's work in progress and I 15 concur with Professor Katz, that that is a matter between 16 me as the accounting officer and those respective firms, 17 and I intend to deal with that, but if the money is to come 18 back, it's got to come back to SARS and I will utilise it 19 for the best of, the benefit of our taxpayers ultimately.

20 MS STEINBERG: Thank you. Do you want to 21 go on?

22 MR KINGON: Yes, thank you. I'm close to 23 finished, Judge.

24 COMMISSIONER: No, it's very interesting, 25 I assure you. Everything you're saying. So don't feel

1 that you're taking up our time.

2 MR KINGON: No Judge, you did give me
 3 till one, but -

4 PROF KATZ: Advocate Steinberg did, not 5 me.

6 MR KINGON: This has been an extremely 7 challenging time for me. I didn't think prior to the 19th
 8 of March that I would be sitting here today, testifying 9 before you. It's been hugely busy, but there's one thing 10 and it's a question I'm not going to answer. You have 11 obviously got a lot of introspection and the key question
 12 that I believe both myself and my colleagues must be asking 13 ourselves, is why did we not stop this destruction, and 14 it's a question I don't want to, I'm not going to answer
 15 Judge. But it is a question that I've been asking myself 16 repeatedly. Should I have had more courage? Should I have 17 taken a firmer stand? Would I have been without a job?
 18 I'll be honest, you had that fear, but it's a question I 19 think each of my colleagues whether on EXCO, whether it be 20 within my group executive structure, whether it be in any 21 other area within our organisation, all areas. We need to 22 ask that question. Could I have done more, because the 23 success of the organisation is built upon what we do and 24 it's a scary question? One that keep me awake.
 25 But we must not be paralysed by guilt or self-

1 doubt. The time is to move on. We have a higher duty. We 2 actually don't have a choice. We must rebuild this 3 organisation. Before closing, I wish to send a message to 4 each and every one of my colleagues in SARS. Since I've 5 been acting Commissioner, I see your hardships. I see the 6 challenges that you have in a very different light. I've 7 learnt a lot. I've never thought there was so much out 8 there. Across the board I see the loss of pride which I've 9 shared that we all used to have in working for SARS. I
 10 used to walk, and I'm involved in my community extensively, 11 with my head held high. It's a battle. I want that to be 12 restored. We're going to do it together. I also see the 13 vast potential and commitment to do the right thing and 14 realise that all is not lost. Together we can rebuild 15 SARS, once again to be a proud organisation, seeking to 16 serve our clients to the best of our abilities. I've been 17 extremely heartened to hear a number of former and retired 18 SARS employees and people who've left our organisation.
 19 I'm going to call them the SARS alumina, and there's many 20 of them. Who've contacted me because they subscribed to 21 the higher purpose? They want to offer their skills and 22 services to SARS, interestingly not for position, but to 23 rebuild the organisation. I welcome that. How that would 24 happen? I don't know. It's, you know those are things 25 we've got to think about. But it was just wonderful for me

1 to see people so passionate about a brand that I'm prepared
 2 to say I want to come back and start building this wall 3 again that needs to be rebuilt. I also want to appeal to 4 the nation as a whole, to support us in the process, a very 5 difficult process, a difficult time in our history of our 6 country and our organisation. I appeal to them to be good 7 fiscal citizens and many were not, but many are and many 8 people are seeking to do the right thing. But I want to 9 appeal to the people to be good fiscal citizens, to work
 10 with us so that we can begin a process of rebuilding SARS 11 and restoring trust in this vital institution. It is 12 critical and I'm appealing to every single person whether 13 it is a person paying excise duties, only pay as you earn 14 from salaries to the big vendors that are out there. Join 15 us in the process. We are prepared to engage. We are 16 prepared to listen to you. We're prepared to work with you 17 to rebuild. As long as you're behaving yourself, I'm happy 18 to work with you, but please help us rebuild this 19 organisation. I've got a small line to end with, but 20 before I do it would be remiss of me not to thank you 21 Judge. You look surprised Judge.
 22 COMMISSIONER: Well, it's the first 23 compliment I've had for the last six -
 24 MR KINGON: Judge, Professor Katz, Mr
 25 Kahla, Advocate Masilo. Your time is important to us.

1 That you're investing into this, it's a pleasure and we 2 welcome it. We welcome it as an organisation and I think I
 3 would be speaking on behalf of the country. We welcome it 4 as the country and I want to thank you for the spirit in 5 which we could engage with you, the spirit of constructive 6 forward looking engagements that I've had. It is 7 wonderful. Yes, we've shed tears but ultimately we've been 8 looking to the future of a better organisation and Judge, 9 from my first engagement till today, that has been what 10 you've said and we appreciate that, and we will continue to 11 work with you and support you to the best of our ability.
 12 We may fail sometimes, you say we're not quick enough or 13 something. It has been sometimes a pain, but it is good 14 and we need to welcome everything that is good. I would 15 like to convey to the evidence leaders, the spirit in which 16 the engagements have happened with staff has been superb 17 and we want to thank you. You're part of the healing 18 process of this organisation, and we welcome that. I've 19 got a team of people who've been working as liaison and I
 20 do want to thank them as you did Judge earlier. Good 21 people who've been doing their best to try and help in this 22 process. A process we didn't know what we were entering 23 into, but I did want to just say that publically. Our 24 appreciation to you Judge. Thank you. I would like to 25 conclude with a simple line that SARS has not seen its best

1 it. Thank you very much Judge.
 2 MS STEINBERG: Thank you.
 3 COMMISSIONER: You know Mr Kingon, I want
 4 to just exchange a few things with you. But first let me
 5 let you down. You're talking about an unreal world.
 6 You've talked about the past, you've talked about the 7 future, you haven't talked about the present. You're not 8 the Commissioner.
 9 MR KINGON: I'm not.
 10 COMMISSIONER: And there is a
 11 Commissioner.
 12 MR KINGON: Correct.
 13 COMMISSIONER: So you're talking about, I
 14 think they talk about a virtual world. I don't know. Now 15 what is concerning me and it does concern me, and this is 16 not said lightly at all. A lot of what I've heard you 17 talking about, was what I heard in evidence existed in the 18 beginning of 2014 and you had a situation, it was changed
 19 radically. You're talking about perhaps not a quick 20 change, but going back there and you're getting a see-saw 21 here. Now so what happens with all the stuff you're going 22 to do? I mean you've got 60 days as I said. That's a bit 23 light, but what's going to happen? You're going to put it 24 all back and then what? It's going to be dismantled again.
 25 Are we going to go on with this see-saw? So that's

1 another, just don't just, give me a moment. I gave you
 2 until one. It concerns me and I, you know there are court
 3 proceedings at the moment. In which you know said perhaps 4 rightly, perhaps wrongly I don't know, that this is an 5 unlawful Commission.
 6 Now I've looked at those allegations and I've 7 said I'm perfectly happy, it's lawful, but one may be 8 wrong. Maybe it has all been unlawful. So it gets set 9 aside. Where do we go from there? So I am a bit concerned 10 about the present. Now it's not for me to decide those 11 things, it's for the President to decide, that's for the 12 Constitutional Court to decide where all this has been 13 going, etcetera. But I'm almost tempted to say please 14 don't put those things in place at the moment, because you 15 will have more disruption, or put it in place, you'll come 16 back, it will all be dismantled again. So it's a bit of a 17 quandary.
 18 Now you know, I'm not going to talk about the 19 Constitutional Court and what it will do. It's, that's its 20 job and I'm not going to pre-judge anything they do. We've 21 still got to go through that process, but quite seriously.
 22 Should you be putting these things in place if they're just 23 going to be dismantled again? It's a serious question.
 24 You've spoken about a great vision etcetera. Well, you can 25 only have that vision if the person in charge has got that

1 vision, and with respect you're not in charge yet. So what 2 does one do? Do you have any suggestions?
 3 MR KINGON: Judge, maybe you're going to 4 the heart of the issue. This organisation needs certainty
 5 and it needs to resolve this matter urgently, with regards
 6 to the Commissioner and the Commissioner's position, 7 because it is in so doing that we can get final stability.
 8 Yes, I am acting but I do have every authority and I'm 9 going to act at the moment, in the way that I believe fit 10 for our country's sake and for our organisation's sake.
 11 Yes, I am acting. I've had, this is my third 90 day cycle 12 as you've stated, and I'm in that 90 day cycle. But the 13 minister and the deputy minister have confirmed I've got 14 full authority to do what I need to do to make a success, 15 and I want to repeat and I might be paraphrasing what the 16 minister said on Tuesday in parliament. We cannot afford a 17 mess at SARS as a country. We cannot and we are in a very 18 difficult position, we're needing certainty. The matter of 19 the Commissioner needs to be wrapped up extremely urgently.
 20 It cannot delay but I have to proceed. I can't sit on my 21 laurels Judge. I understand what you're saying about the 22 see-saw, that a Commissioner will come in and maybe have a 23 totally different vision and a totally different view of 24 what I've expressed here today. I am basing my decision on 25 my engagements with my staff and colleagues, that this is

1 the right approach for us. It's also based on what's best 2 practice and we believe that there is no other alternative, 3 yes there might be tweaks here and there, but there is no
 4 other alternative. To go back to where we were would be a 5 disaster, and I believe even in the, and I'll be the last 6 person to blow my horn because I'm not about that. The 7 fact of the matter is we cannot afford to go back to where 8 we were and I think I've done a bit to try and bring back
 9 from the brink where we were in March of this year and I
 10 will continue to do that, but I also want to say 11 categorically, publically here, whoever is the 12 Commissioner, I will support that person. I would go all 13 out to make sure that SARS is a success.
 14 COMMISSIONER: Well, I will just caution
 15 you about that. You've got a Commissioner. If you want to 16 say you're going to support the Commissioner, make sure you
 17 include the current Commissioner. Anyway, I just caution 18 you about -
 19 MR KINGON: No, I understand -
 20 COMMISSIONER: Saying you support any 21 Commissioner. Sorry, anyway. But let me go to another 22 thing. As I say that concerns me a bit, but that's not in 23 my hands. The President has got lots of difficult 24 decisions at the moment that he's making, I'm sure. This 25 is one he'll have to make. He'll make it as he sees best

1 and it's not my business. Apparently there are court
 2 proceedings. They will get on with that in the normal 3 course and I'll accept any decision a court will make 4 obviously. I don't think courts can change the facts 5 myself, but there it is.
 6 There's another thing I just want to say as well
 7 that, I made one or two notes here. When this Commission 8 started I had the pleasure to spend a Saturday morning with 9 you. You recall your wife makes very good shortbread and 10 thank her again. But I knew nothing about SARS at all and 11 that's why I saw you and you gave me some briefing on it, 12 and thank you very much. It was very useful. In fact the 13 discussions before this Commission settled formally were 14 extremely important, because otherwise how do you know 15 which direction to take, but since then you know, you knew 16 about the inside. Since then I've heard so much evidence 17 and you fortify me in the conclusions I've reached on the 18 evidence, because I was the outsider listening to what 19 people say and I was listening to what you say as the 20 insider looking in, and quite frankly the two coincide very 21 closely. I'm very gratified that perhaps we're on the 22 right track. So I found that interesting.
 23 [12:24] As far as your – what you said in detail, it's 24 about management issues which are not – you know we're not 25 here to manage SARS as it were. So I'm not sure that we

1 would make recommendations on a lot of the things you've 2 talked about. Those are your issues and I'm very gratified 3 to hear of the things you're going to do because it seemed 4 to me from an outsider's point of view all of them needed 5 looking at. But our terms of reference are not how to 6 manage the process, how to govern it.

7 MR KINGON: Correct.

8 COMMISSIONER: And that's what we'll be 9 looking at, so I think it's very important that you give us
10 that memorandum and then there are a lot of individual 11 issues we've got to make findings on. As I look at them 12 now quite frankly I think that some of them are rather 13 trivial in comparison to what we've heard. But thank you 14 very much for that. I appreciate it very much.

15 MS STEINBERG: Thank you, Mr Kingon.

16 MR KINGON: Thank you very much.

17 COMMISSIONER: Is that it for the day?

18 MS STEINBERG: Yes we're back on Monday
19 at 9am.

20 COMMISSIONER: Let me just say once and 21 final time. Everything in life comes to an end including 22 the Commission and you know I used to sit in the courts and 23 I thought to myself you know if someone had a litigation in 24 front of me and I had to wait forever to see if anyone's 25 going to say anything. Well none of the litigation would

1 ever have been completed. There comes a time when you say 2 enough is enough. You've got two days left, Monday and 3 Tuesday is that right? And then I'm getting on with the 4 work of writing a report. If anyone wants to say anything 5 they'd better come forward very quickly.

6 MS STEINBERG: And Judge, there will be a
7 couple of more days in early November.

8 COMMISSIONER: Well there may be, ja.
9 Thank you.
